

Perspectives

---

2018

Article 6

---

7-1-2018

Author Biographies

Perspectives Editors

University of New Hampshire, Durham

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholars.unh.edu/perspectives>

---

Recommended Citation

Editors, Perspectives (2018) "Author Biographies," Perspectives: Vol. 10 : Iss. 1 , Article 6.

Available at: <https://scholars.unh.edu/perspectives/vol10/iss1/6>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Student Journals and Publications at University of New Hampshire Scholars' Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Perspectives by an authorized editor of University of New Hampshire Scholars' Repository. For more information, please contact nicole.hentz@unh.edu.

Author Biographies

Breezy Ferreira

Breezy Ferreira is a Junior at UNH. She is majoring in Sociology, and minoring in Spanish, Forensics, and Justice Studies. She is interested in studying human trafficking, with a focus on sex trafficking, and the factors in society that allow these problems to continue.

Remy Frost

Remy Frost is currently a senior at UNH and will graduate in May 2018 with a B.A. in Classics and Sociology. They plan to pursue graduate research in queer linguistics and the social construction of knowledge, eventually hoping to work as a sociologist for a research institution. In the meantime, they will be studying Japanese and ranting about capitalism and psychiatry online.

Emily Haley

Emily Haley is a senior Sociology and International Affairs dual major. Her areas of interest include race and ethnic relations with a specific focus on East Asia, globalization, and the LGBT population.

Evan Smith

Evan Smith is a Senior at the University of New Hampshire in the class of 2018. He has majors in Sociology and Justice Studies as well as a minor in Forensics. His primary areas of academic interest are self-harm and suicide, as well as a focus on quantitative data for which he will be pursuing a Master's Degree from Columbia University.