

2015

Scholarly and Creative Works Conference set April 23-24

Sarah Gardner

Dominican University of California, sarah.gardner@dominican.edu

Dave Albee

Dominican University of California, david.albee@dominican.edu

Survey: Let us know how this paper benefits you.

Recommended Citation

Gardner, Sarah and Albee, Dave, "Scholarly and Creative Works Conference set April 23-24" (2015). News. 306.
<https://scholar.dominican.edu/news-releases/306>

This News Release is brought to you for free and open access by the Communications and Media Relations at Dominican Scholar. It has been accepted for inclusion in News by an authorized administrator of Dominican Scholar. For more information, please contact michael.pujals@dominican.edu.

Scholarly and Creative Works Conference set April 23-24

Dominican celebrated its graduating seniors, master's degree students and Adult Degree Completion students at the inaugural Scholarly and Creative Works Conference April 23-24.

The conference, free and open to the public, featured a collection of presentations, posters, art work, and dance and choral performances by Dominican's graduating undergraduate seniors and graduate students throughout campus.

CLICK HERE to see a full list of abstracts outlining the work presented at the conference.

“This conference is an opportunity for our entire campus community to come together to celebrate the depth and breadth of research, scholarship, and creative work taking place on our campus,” says William Phillips, a professor in the Department of Psychology who organized the event along with Administrative Coordinator June Caminiti and Michael Pujals, Reference and Electronic Resources Librarian and Liaison to the Barowsky School of Business, and Nursing, Occupational Therapy, and Public Health Departments.

The goal of the Scholarly and Creative Works Conference aligns with Dominican's mission to create and develop meaningful relationships with students and faculty and provide multiple formative learning experiences such as a major research project, an internship, a service learning program, or other forms of applied learning.

|

The conference began April 23 with a welcoming address by Dominican President Mary B. Marcy in Angelico Hall at 4:30 p.m. followed by a keynote address by Dr. Tricia Rose, Africana Studies professor at Brown University and director of the university's Center for the Study of Race and Ethnicity in America.

Beginning at 6 p.m., oral presentations will be given in several classrooms in Guzman Hall, poster presentations will be displayed in Guzman Lecture Hall, and a reception will be held for the Senior Art Exhibit Opening in Alemany Library for the Department of Art, Art History and Design.

CLICK HERE for the Dominican Scholar/Scholarly and Creative Works Conference website.

CLICK HERE for the complete conference schedule.

For more information, contact Jaime Castner at 415-257-1300 or email jaime.castner@dominican.edu.