Sellout crowd hears Gloria Steinem in ILS lecture series

International feminist icon and political activist Gloria Steinem spoke before a sellout crowd in Dominican's Angelico Hall on Tuesday afternoon, November 10, as part of the Institute for Leadership Studies' 2015 Fall Leadership Lecture Series in partnership with Book Passage.

Ms. Steinem appeared at Dominican to discuss her memoir, My Life on the Road, her first book in 20 years. As a co-founder and editor of Ms. Magazine, and a renowned writer, decorated activist, and pioneering feminist leader, the 81-year-old Steinem has championed social justice for more than 40 years. In 2013, she received the Presidential Medal of Freedom from President Barack Obama.

For more information or to purchase My Life on the Road, contact Book Passage in Corte Madera by calling (415) 927-0960 extension 1 or by visiting bookpassage.com.

The speaker series, a cooperative effort between Dominican's Institute for Leadership Studies and Book Passage, features some of the country's leading figures from the worlds of business, politics, entertainment, academia, and literature. The series has entertained and educated thousands of Marin County and San Francisco Bay Area residents.

All events are open to the public. Free parking is available on campus in the nearby Conlan Center parking lot at the intersection of Acacia and Grand Avenues in San Rafael.

The Institute for Leadership Studies' 2015 Fall Leadership Lecture Series is sponsored by Private Ocean, the oldest and largest privately-held wealth management firm in Marin County. Private Ocean's commitment to community service has been a driving force behind its support of the lecture series, now in its 13th year.
