INTRODUCTION

Bibliographies entitled Microfilms Relating to Eastern Africa are part of an on-going series devoted to microfilms produced by the Syracuse Microfilm Project in Eastern Africa. The project, which began independently in 1963, has been conducted since September 1970 in cooperation with the Cooperative Africana Microform Project (CAMP) at the Center for Research Libraries in Chicago. The purpose of the series is to provide basic catalogs to filmed records as soon as possible after their arrival in the United States.

Presently, the Syracuse Microfilm Project is sending films from Kenya, where it is working in cooperation with the Kenya National Archives, Nairobi. Kenya films not included in this bibliography and scheduled for future indexing include the Kenya Daily Mail (Mombasa, 1927-1964) and a large collection of minutes and records of many Local Native/African District Councils. Over the next few years, films will be arriving from other parts of Eastern Africa, starting with Ethiopia where the project will move March, 1973.

The series Microfilms Relating to Eastern Africa differs substantially in format from the earlier microfilm guides published by the Program of Eastern African Studies: R. G. Gregory, M. M. Maxon, and L. P. Spencer (eds.), A Guide to the Kenya National Archives Microfilm Collection (1969); and Harvey Soff (ed.) A Guide to the Coast Province Microfilm Collection (1971). These two guides provide indexes only for Kenya government documents, whereas the series Microfilms Relating to Eastern Africa provides indexes to a great variety of sources, public and private.

The single format of the earlier guides, though adequate for standardized administrative reports and correspondence, proved unsuitable for the records and papers of varied description. The new series, therefore, utilized several indexing forms, each of which is explained in the section, "The Use of the Guide," pp. iii-vii.

The editors are indebted to many for their assistance in the compilation of this guide. They wish to thank Professor Robert G. Gregory, Director of the Syracuse Microfilm and Indexing Project, for his many valuable suggestions and assistance in editing the manuscript. They are especially grateful for the careful and excellent work of Ms. Gloria Katz and Ms. Sally La Mar, who were responsible for typing the final draft. Gratitude should also be expressed to the staff of the Syracuse University Library, especially to Ms. Marion L. Mullen of Interlibrary Loan and Ms. Molly A. Ostwald of the Processing Center for their friendly cooperation in providing on demand films and equipment. Finally, a large measure of appreciation is owed to the National Science Foundation and the Program of Eastern African Studies, Syracuse University, for their generous financial support which made the publication of this guide possible.

THE USE OF THE GUIDE

- A. "Old Series" and "New Series"
- B. Index Entries
- C. Requesting Film Through Interlibrary Loan
- D. Syracuse University Microfilm Numbers

A. "Old Series" and "New Series"

This guide is divided into two parts: "Old Series" and "New Series." Films indexed under Old Series were filmed prior to September 1970 and are distinguished in that (1) each group of records has its own set of reel numbers, and (2) Old Series films are presently to be found only at the Ernest Stevenson Bird Library, Syracuse University. In this guide, Old Series titles of record groups are arranged alphabetically.

"New Series" films date from September 1970 in their production and are located at CAMP, as well as at Syracuse University. The New Series is a single set of continuously-numbered reels on which record groups have been filmed in succession. New Series records do not appear in alphabetical order, and a single reel may contain two or more distinct and unrelated groups of records. The procedure for requesting reels of the New Series through interlibrary loan thus differs from that for the Old Series (see Part C, in this section).

B. Index Entries

To insure their maximum utility, index entries have been assigned two primary functions: (1) To indicate precisely which records appear on a given film. (The listing of missing items, a temptation particularly great in the case of newspapers, has been avoided); and (2) To correspond as closely as possible to the internal organization of the documents. Because of the variety of sources in this guide, there are several basic categories for which a particular type of index entry is suited: newspapers; journals; published government reports; personal diaries; organizational records, papers, correspondence, etc.

Newspapers. Index entries for newspapers consist of the volume and/or number of the issue and the date of publication. When consecutive issues appear on film (i.e., when dates of publication or volume and/or numbers continue in regular fashion), the inclusive dates and volume/numbers are listed in one entry. Index entries for newspapers do not represent newspapers filmed as a group. Runs of all newspapers were filmed without interruption. For example, entries taken from Reels 9 and 10 of the Kenya Weekly News, on Page 74 , are listed:

Reel 9

Vol. X. Nos. 40 - 52
October 2, 1936 - December 25, 1936.

Vol. XI. Nos. 1 - 22.
January 1, 1937 - May 28, 1937.

Reel 10

Vol. XI. Nos. 23 - 41.
June 4, 1937 - October 8, 1937.

Vol. XI. No. 41
October 15, 1937.

Vol. XI. Nos. 42 - 44.
October 22, 1937 - November 5, 1937.

These five entries represent issues of the Kenya Weekly News which, on the film, appear without interruption. For example, the last page of issue, Vol. X, No. 52 (December 25, 1936), will appear immediately adjacent and before Page 1 of Vol. XI, No. 1 (January 1, 1937).

Reel 9 begins with the remaining 12 issues of Vol. X. The inclusive dates of publication and volume and issue numbers are given. With the change in volume number, the next entry begins. This entry consists of 22 consecutive issues. With the change in reel number, a new entry appears. The following entry, Vol. XI, No. 41, occurs because of the duplication of numbers on two issues which have different dates of publication.

Journals. Index entries consist of volume and sub-volume numbers, date of publication, and page length. Volumes are indexed as they appear on the film.

Published Government Reports. Index entries consist of the title of the report, date and place of publication, and page length. Because governmental reports are often issued annually, abbreviated titles have been made for annual entries subsequent to the first full entry. For example, on pp. 1-3, the annual reports of the Nyasaland Department of Agriculture are listed in abbreviated form (e.g., Annual Report. . . 1912, 52 p.) after the initial citation.

Diaries. Inclusive dates of each volume of diaries is given, along with page length.

Organizational Records, Papers, Correspondence, etc. Index entries in this category ~~follow~~ the format adopted by the filers of the records. For each of the 73 reels of Asian organizational papers, entries correspond to records which have been filmed as a group. By and large, the Asian organizational papers consist of files of correspondence, and entries give the title of each file, inclusive dates, total pages, and mention of any special enclosures. Other materials, such as files, minute books, registers, and accounts, are entered by title, inclusive dates, and total pages. Whenever published or public items appear in a file or are filmed together, single entries are made for each item, giving title, date and place of publication, and page length. In accordance with the format, entries sometimes have been grouped under headings and sub-headings, as in the "Records of the East Africa Indian National Congress," Reels 15 to 36, pp.21-46.

C. Requesting Film Through Interlibrary Loan

Films indexed in this guide and housed at the Ernest Stevenson Bird Library, Syracuse University, are not available through Interlibrary Loan. All requests should be directed to Cooperative Africana Microform Project (CAMP), Center for Research Libraries, 5721 Cottage Grove Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, 60637. Available at CAMP are all films issued with "New Series" numbers. CAMP intends to acquire many of the "Old Series" films in the future.

When requesting films in the "Old Series," an applicant should give the full title heading and the desired number of the reel listed under the title heading. For example, if one wished to see the photo albums of the Rev. H. K. Binns, the proper request would be made in this form:

Syracuse Microfilm Project in Eastern Africa
The Diaries and Photo Albums of the Rev. and Mrs. H. K. Binns.
Reels A and B.

When requesting films in the "New Series," an applicant need only give the New Series reel number. For example, if one wished to see the Methodist Mission Baptism Registers from Ribe and Mazeras, the proper request would be made in this form:

Syracuse Microfilm Project in Eastern Africa.
New Series. Reel 51.

D. Syracuse University Library Microfilm Numbers

For those in Syracuse who are using the films indexed in this guide, a list of microfilm numbers used exclusively in the Ernest Stevenson Bird Library is provided on page 141. One need not refer to the Syracuse University Library numbers when requesting reels from CAMP. At the Ernest Stevenson Bird Library, microfilm numbers are cataloged in the main card catalog and in the microfilm index in the Reference Room.

Nakuru. 1934 - 1962. [Indexed in R. F. Morton and H. Soff, (Eds.) Microfilms Relating to Eastern Africa, Part I -- Occasional Bibliography #19 (1971), pp. 72 - 73.] 5 Reels.

This collection consists primarily of materials relating to the political, economic and social history of the Asian community in Kenya and other parts of East Africa. It contains numerous minutes of some of the key Asian organizations and extensive correspondence among these and many other Asian organizations and important Asian figures. The collection is of less value to non-Asian studies, but it contains some valuable correspondence between Asians (especially their principal organization, the East Africa Indian National Congress) and important African and European individuals and organizations.

This collection was filmed by the Syracuse Microfilm Project in cooperation with the Kenya Congress, and especially through the help and generosity of Mr. A. J. Pandya, Mr. Chanan Singh, Mr. J. M. Nazereth, and Mr. D. S. Trivedi.

Index entries list the file title, inclusive dates and total pages. Important items and publications included in a file but not referred to in the file title appear in brackets.

The Appendices (p. 99 ff.) provide detailed indexes to the organizations corresponding in the papers of the EAINC, the Indian Association, Nairobi, and the Indian Association, Mombasa.

At present films in the collection are housed only in the Syracuse University Library and do not circulate.

[R] signifies that the items in a file appear in reverse chronological order.

OLD SERIES

PAPERS OF THE EAST AFRICA INDIAN NATIONAL CONGRESS. CORRESPONDENCE AND RECORDS. 1885 - 1963. 36 Reels.

The papers of the East Africa Indian National Congress are the property of the Kenya Congress (The Honorable A. J. Pandya, President). They are located in the Kenya Congress Archives, Reprani House, Gulzaar Street, Nairobi.

The papers are divided into two groups: A. Correspondence, (Reels 1-14), and B. Records (Reels 15-36). Appendix I (pp.107-140) provides a detailed index for this section. Correspondence entries consist of inclusive dates and total pages. Important items such as minutes or publications appear in brackets. Records consist of 20 Sections, included in which are cash and minute books, registers, a great assortment of subject files, and various publications. Records entries include the title of each item within a section, inclusive dates, and total pages. Other important items appear in brackets.

OLD SERIES

KENYA WEEKLY NEWS (NAKURU, NAIROBI). 1928 - 1969. 80 Reels

As might be expected of a newspaper emanating from the largest of the white highland towns and headquarters of the powerful Kenya Farmers' Association, the Kenya Weekly News of Nakuru was aimed largely at a European agrarian readership. Its reports and editorials dealt often with topics of vital interest to this group: agriculture, labor, and politics.

Under the editorship of Frank James Couldrey (ed. 1928 - 1946) the newspaper began as the bi-weekly Nakuru Advertiser, switched to a weekly edition in 1929, and altered its name several more times before 1931, when the permanent title was adopted. The best known of the paper's editors was Couldrey's successor, Mervyn G. F. S. Hill, who directed the News from 1946 until his death in 1965. After 1965 the paper was edited by Jack Ensoll and moved to Nairobi, where it folded four years later.

Some issues are missing in the filmed collection, especially in the earlier years. Entries contain inclusive dates and numbers of successive issues and do not correspond to any grouping on the film. Film quality is uniformly good, though occasional bleaching is noted. The Kenya Weekly News collection is the property of the Kenya National Archives, Nairobi.

APPENDICES

ORGANIZATIONS INDEX TO THE
CORRESPONDENCE OF THE ASIAN PAPERS

Appendix I. East Africa India National Congress and the Nairobi Indian Association.

Appendix II. Mombasa Indian Association

The appendices provide indices to almost all of the organizations corresponding in the papers of the East African Indian National Congress and the Indian Associations of Nairobi and Mombasa. The purpose of the indices is to increase the use of the collection by reducing the time required to search for materials, to convey the scope and importance of the Asian collection, and to suggest possible avenues of research into Asian activity in East Africa and elsewhere.

It was necessary that certain limitations be placed on the indices. The compilers did not list individuals, regardless of importance, because to do so would greatly enlarge the indices and significantly increase the cost of preparation. The indices do not give listings for the records of the Indian Associations of Kisumu and Nakuru, because this would only marginally improve the use of these materials. (The papers of the Nakuru Indian Association are listed in Occasional Bibliography #19, Microfilms Relating to Eastern Africa, Part I, pp. 72-73.) Listing for several files of the EAINC and the Mombasa Indian Association are not included because the titles give clear indication of the contents.

Correspondence to and from the Mombasa Association, the Nairobi Association, and the Kenya Secretariat are not listed in the papers of the EAINC (Appendix I) because of the frequency with which they appear -- each body is mentioned in all but a few files. For the same reason the EAINC, the Secretariat, and the Nairobi Indian Association are not listed for the files of the Mombasa Indian Association (Appendix II). Conversely, many organizations in the EAINC papers do not merit inclusion because of the rare, mostly single, appearance. All organizations, however, are listed in the papers of the Mombasa Indian Association. When the EAINC or Mombasa Association simultaneously issued press releases to Kenya and British newspapers, only the Kenya newspapers are indexed.
