

3-17-2006

Composition Recital

Daniel E. van der Roest
Chapman University

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/music\_programs

---

Recommended Citation

van der Roest, Daniel E., "Composition Recital" (2006). Printed Performance Programs (PDF Format). Paper 407.
http://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/music\_programs/407

This Student Recital is brought to you for free and open access by the Music Performances at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Printed Performance Programs (PDF Format) by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

The background of the entire page is filled with handwritten musical notation on a series of horizontal staves. The notation includes various notes, rests, and symbols, though it is somewhat faint and difficult to read in detail. The text is overlaid on this background.

Composition Recital
of
Daniel E. van der Roest

Chapman University
Salmon Recital Hall
March 17, 2006

Fall Waltz, no. 4

Performed by Lorrienne Fischer, piano

Imp Lair To Us, I Dine

Performed by Kathleen Mansuing, violin
Sarah Awaa, cello
Bernie Dively, bass drum

Three Pieces of Fruit for a Dream 10 tamarinds...7 apples ... and 84 sweet, sweet, berries

Performed by Alex Wilson, cello
Marrissa Gohl, cello

Frigid Whispers in June

The winter chill sets upon thee creeping close to the maple trees temperatures drop, comes the lonely shivers and it's only ... when she leaves do the summer lakes, freeze with time and glisten through stone-cold eyes to memories of words once spoken, that, "I love you and you're mine."

Tiny blue flames are no match upon these snowy fallen hills clouds ache in their songs of gray where her absence distantly fills – in the capturing of yet, another winter's day.

And yet the more I gaze from the break in my window pane, sunlit rays stream into view as the birds gently charm the skies, painting every corner with baby blue – for even the green on the leaves hinders its shadow in my mind to long for her, away from her is where the winter lives inside.

...and then they danced!

Performed by

Kathleen Mansuing, violin

Jenny Estrin, violin

Philip Triggs, viola

Alex Wilson, cello

A Brief Lesson in Mindfulness

Performed by

Josh Foy, marimba

Bernie Dively, marimba

Frigid Whispers in June

Set to a Poem by

Kristen E. van der Roest

Performed by

Chapman University Singers

Chapman University Strings

Conducted by

Mia Eviamalo

Special Thanks

First and foremost, sincere thanks, gratitude, love, and all the appreciative words in the world go to both my immediate and extended family. Without them, I would not be where I am today, nor would I be who I am today. My family is my foundation and especially without my father, mother, sister, and brother, my being would crumble with no hope for reconstruction.

Secondly, I would like to thank Ms. Tara Bloomquist for the complete and utter love (and patience) she continues to give to me, day after day (most of the time, undeserved). My experience at Chapman University would not have been the same without her. At the risk of sounding sappy, she is literally the first person I think of when I wake up, and the last person I think of when I fall asleep.

And to my friends! Where would the world be without friends? The no-distance-is-too-far-friends, known-since-we-were-kids-friends, work-friends, school-friends – all of you made attending Chapman a more rewarding and fun experience for me.

I am also grateful to my employer, OCTFCU and in particular, Tom and Tony. Their patience and insightful guidance is very much appreciated. (Oh, the many days off I requested...)

Dr. Martin, Dr. Naidoo, and Dr. Heim – whether they know it or not – will always be thought of as my mentors. I am very thankful for their diverse perspectives that always helped me to see the many sides of music composition. I truly appreciate each of you, and will always hold your insight, intellect, and opinions in the highest regard.

Finally, a huge thank you goes to the musicians and performers of my work: Lorriane Fischer, Sarah Awaa, Kathleen Mansuing, Bernie Dively, Alex Wilson, Marrison Gohl, Jenny Estrin, Phillip Triggs, Josh Foy, Mia Eviamalo, Evan Brummel, Nadia Lesinska, Kalena Bovell, Lauren Jackson, Adriana Hernandez, Amy Noonan, Mike Freeman, Mark Buchner, and the Chapman University Singers. This concert would not have happened without your amazing talent and professionalism.