Vasil Chekardzhikov attended the High School of the Arts, "Dobri Hristov" in Varna Bulgaria. He is a graduate of the Academy for Music and Dance in Plovdiv, Bulgaria, where he studied with Professor Ljuben Haralambiev and received his Bachelors Degree in Music Education with an emphasis in Classical Guitar, Voice, Solfege, and Tambura. He received his Masters Degree in Guitar Performance from California State University, Fullerton, where he was a student of David Grimes.

Mr. Chekardzhikov is currently coordinator of the Guitar studies program at Orange County High School of the Arts, where he has also taught Ballroom Dance. He performs with the Four of a Kind Guitar Quartet and the Triad Guitar Trio, which together have enjoyed over 500 performances throughout Europe and the United States, and have released 4 CDs.

In addition to teaching at OCHSA he maintains a large private teaching studio and is a frequent solo performer throughout Southern California. His performances have won him numerous prizes in international music competitions.

Mary Palchak performs and teaches throughout Southern California. She has played with Pacific, Long Beach, and Pasadena Symphonies as well as for numerous touring ballet companies at OCPAC and the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion. Her CD Flute Music by French Composers received critical acclaim in Fanfare magazine and is a bestselling classical flute CD. She has performed throughout the US for the Yamaha Music Education system, presenting new works for the flute by young composers on Yamaha's Junior Original Concert series. As Artistic Director of the California Concert Artists Mary Palchak has organized and performed in numerous chamber music concerts with Southern California's finest musicians, presenting standard, obscure and new works for Orange County audiences. Currently on faculty at Irvine Valley College and Chapman University, Ms Palchak received her Master's Degree from the St. Louis Conservatory where she studied with St. Louis Symphony principal flutist Jacob Berg. Other teachers include Patricia Garside, Julius Baker and Anne Giles. Mary lives in Irvine with her husband, three almost-grown children, and beagle, Dollie.

CELEBRATE the creative and intellectual promise of today's rising stars by supporting the Chapman University College of Performing Arts. Your tax-deductible donation to our Fund for Excellence underwrites award-winning programs and performances. Also, your employer may be interested in the visibility gained by underwriting programs and performances within the College of Performing Arts.

We invite you to learn more about how you can assist with the construction of our new Center for the Arts, a 1,050-seat theatre which will be located in the northwest corner of campus. When completed, the Center for the Arts will be one of the largest at any university in Orange County and will feature state-of-the-art technology.

For more information about supporting our future stars in theatre, music and dance and the exciting programs produced by the College of Performing Arts, contact Kevin Cartwright, Director of Development for the College of Performing Arts at 714-289-2085 or cartwrig@chapman.edu.
