American flutist Benjamin Smolen has performed across the globe, from the United States to Europe, Russia, and Japan. In 2011, he was appointed Principal Flutist of the Pacific Symphony Orchestra in Orange County, California. Since beginning his studies at the age of ten in Charlotte, North Carolina, he has won First Prize at the Haynes International Flute Competition and James Pappoutsakis Memorial Flute Competition, and Second Prize at the New York Flute Club Young Artist Competition. He has also given solo performances with the Princeton University Orchestra, Charlotte Civic and Youth Orchestras, Gardner Webb Symphony Orchestra, and on National Public Radio's From the Top with pianist Christopher O'Riley.

Benjamin has had the privilege to work with a wide variety of contemporary composers including Robert Beaser, John Harbison, Helmut Lachenmann, Paul Lansky, Lei Liang, Pauline Oliveros, Steve Reich, Joseph Schwantner, and John Williams. He has also performed with renowned conductors Herbert Blomstedt, Christoph von Dohnanyi, Gustavo Dudamel, Rafael Fruhbeck de Burgos, Kurt Masur, Edoardo Muller, Robert Spano, Jaap van Sweden, Michael Tilson Thomas, and Hugh Wolff. His performances have been featured on NPR, WGBH-Boston, French National Radio, and the Naxos and Mode record labels. During the summer, Benjamin has participated in the Manchester Music Festival, the American Institute of Musical Studies Festival Orchestra in Graz, and twice as a fellow at the Tanglewood Music Center.

Benjamin completed his undergraduate studies in the Music and Slavic departments at Princeton University, during which time he also completed a Performance Diploma at the Moscow Tchaikovsky Conservatory and studied with Michael Parloff, Jayn Rosenfeld, and Aleksandr Golyshev. Benjamin also earned a Master of Music degree in Flute Performance at the New England Conservatory where he studied with Paula Robison.

Pianist Janet Kao, a native of Taiwan, is an accomplished musician with extensive experience as a solo pianist, vocal/instrumental collaborator, and an opera coach. She has performed on many stages including Alice Tully Hall in New York City, Harris Concert Hall in Aspen, Preston Bradley Hall in Chicago, National Concert Hall of Taiwan. She has been invited to participate in several summer music festivals including Bowdoin Music Festival, the Yellow Barn Chamber Music Festival, and the Music Academy of the West. She has served as a staff accompanist at the Aspen Music Festival, as a staff coach at Opera in the Ozarks, Arkansas and the American Institute of Musical Arts in Graz, Austria.

She has received teaching fellowships from the Julliard School and the USC Thornton Opera, working closely with renowned conductors, Judith Clurman and Brent McMunn. Her interests in contemporary music have led her to collaborate on new operas including Miss Lonelyhearts by Lowell Liebermann and Powder Her face by Thomas Adès. In addition to opera, she has premiered many contemporary chamber works with the New Juilliard Ensemble, under the baton of Joel Sachs.

Janet received her Bachelor and Master of Music degree in Piano Performance from the Peabody Conservatory with pianist Robert McDonald, and a Graduate Certificate in Collaborative Piano from the Juilliard School under the tutelage of Jonathan Feldman and Brian Zeger. She completed the Doctor of Musical Arts degree from the University of Southern California in Keyboard Collaborative Arts in 2009 under Alan Smith and was awarded Gwendolyn Koldofsky Scholarship Award for three consecutive years. Dr. Kao is currently an adjunct professor and a vocal coach at Fullerton College and Chapman University.

The James L. Doti President's Piano Series

"Welcome to the James L. Doti President's Piano Series. I hope you will join for me for this celebration of our outstanding piano faculty and renowned guest artists. We look forward to sharing this unique experience with the local community for years to come."

The President's Piano Series was founded in 2011 with the mission of providing access to acclaimed pianists for both the Southern California community and the students of Chapman University. Each year the President's Piano

Series presents internationally acclaimed pianists and ensembles from throughout the world that perform both solo and chamber music recitals. In addition to evening performances, the series is committed to providing educational master class opportunities open to the public.

Under the artistic direction of Grace Fong, internationally renowned pianists will present THREE CONCERTS on select THURSDAY EVENINGS. All concerts will take place in SALMON RECITAL HALL located on the Chapman University campus.

Public master classes will be scheduled for selected Chapman students.

COLLEGE OF PERFORMING ARTS

Dear Alumni, Parents and Friends:

Performances like the one you are about to see are vital components of our students' academic and artistic curriculum, helping them develop practical skills and artistic sensibilities. We are proud to showcase the talents of our students, while at the same time providing them with learning experiences that take them outside the traditional classroom.

As a lover of the arts, you have a crucial role to play to ensure our success and the success of the students who are at the heart of all we do. Your financial support helps to provide educational and performing opportunities necessary for our students' growth into artists.

Please join our community of loyal alumni, parents and community partners who are devoted to developing the talents of the next generation of artists with a gift to the Fund for Excellence. The Fund for Excellence supports College of Performing Arts initiatives that directly benefit our students' experience. Your gift impacts our programs by:

- Providing our students with opportunities to work with professional artists;
- Ensuring top notch community productions of classic and contemporary art;
- Strengthening our programs by maintaining our ability to attract the brightest and most talented students from across the country.

With your gift, you will be a part of a family of individuals who demonstrate, year after year, they are fully committed to developing the talents of young artists. I hope you join us not only because you value the arts, but because you want to invest in our next generation of artists.

Enjoy the performance, and I look forward to seeing you again throughout the season.

Sincerely,

Dale A. Merrill, Dean

Invest in our next generation of artists.

The College of Performing Arts brings you the most vital and powerful part of our curriculum – live performances of dance, music and theatre. This extraordinary hands-on training for our next generation of artists is possible only through your generosity.

By helping to maintain the resources essential to our curriculum, you allow the College to offer a dynamic learning environment that nurtures the creativity of our students with one-on-one training, ensuring they master their craft. We can produce exceptional performances like what you are about to see only with support from people committed to excellence in performing arts. People just like you.

Help support the College of Performing Arts' talented young students as they transform into tomorrow's professional artists. To learn more about giving to the College of Performing Arts, please contact Liz Crozer, Director of Development, at (714) 289-2085 or crozer@chapman.edu.
