Chapman University

Chapman University, founded in 1861, is one of the oldest, most prestigious private universities in California. Chapman's picturesque campus is located in the heart of Orange County – one of the nation's most exciting centers of arts, business, science and technology – and draws outstanding students from across the United States and around the world.

Known for its blend of liberal arts and professional programs, Chapman University encompasses seven schools and colleges: Wilkinson College of Humanities and Social Sciences, George L. Argyros School of Business and Economics, Lawrence and Kristina Dodge College of Film and Media Arts, Schmid College of Science, College of Performing Arts, School of Law and College of Educational Studies.

Named to the list of top universities in the nation by U.S. News & World Report and the Princeton Review, Chapman University enrolls more than 6,000 undergraduate, graduate and law students. The university's mission is to provide personalized education of distinction that leads to inquiring, ethical and productive lives as global citizens.

Chapman University Conservatory of Music

Chapman's internationally-acclaimed Conservatory of Music offers degree programs in instrumental performance, piano and vocal studies (including opera), as well as choral conducting, instrumental conducting, music composition, and music education. Within the 43,000 square foot facility, the Conservatory contains three recital halls, over twenty practice rooms, two recording studios, classrooms, teaching studios and faculty offices.

In addition to the 225 music majors, the Conservatory also provides performance opportunities for over 400 non-majors campus-wide, including university choirs, chamber orchestra, wind symphony, and jazz ensembles. Talent Scholarships are available on an audition basis for all students, regardless of major.

Graduates of the Conservatory can be heard performing in many of the major concert halls around the world. The University Choirs, Chamber Orchestra and Wind Symphony tour regularly on the national and international level. Recent tours have included trips to Italy, Australia, China, and Greece.

The Conservatory of Music is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music. Visit www.chapman.edu/music for more information.
