My dear Bob:

I am most grateful to you for your thoughtfulness in sending me the brochure on Humanities and the Arts. Herewith enclosed are some of my initial thoughts on the subject. This is a project that has tremendous possibilities; perhaps much more so than the programs we have discussed in the past. I shall be most interested to know of Mr. W. McNeil Lowry's further plans. I expect to be in New York next month, and perhaps further discussions could then take place.

In the meantime, I am looking forward to a most exciting project also, which is welcoming you to Los Angeles later this month. Please let me know when you expect to arrive, when you can be our guest to lunch and dinner, and whether there is anything that we can do to add to your comfort and the glamor of the occasion.

Please give our love to Vesta and tell her how much we are looking forward to seeing her here. And last, but not least, don't forget to give my warm greetings to Barbara, my delightful theatre companion last month.

With all good wishes for the New Year,

Yours as ever,

Henri Temianka
