Dear Henri and Emmy:

Your recent gift to Sally and me, the Lexicon of Musical Invective, is a witty and fascinating volume. You are correct: reading it is a nice laugh-filled way to start 1987.

I am very proud that we honored you at our commencement ceremonies, and, once again, I welcome you among the alumni of Pepperdine University.

May you have a wonderful new year, and I look forward to seeing you on many happy occasions during the University's 50th anniversary year.

Sincerely,
