Mr. Henri Temianka
2915 Patricia Avenue
Los Angeles, CA 90064

Dear Mr. Temianka:

Mother has forwarded your very thoughtful note to her following Father's death. I have very fond, but somewhat distant and therefore slightly vague, memories of you at the family's house before the War. In addition to the music sessions at which you made such a signal contribution I also remember your enjoyment in riding my bicycle with only a black beret as protective head gear.

In your note to Mother you asked for an article about my Father. I am pleased to enclose the article that appeared in the Pittsburgh Post Gazette, a copy of the article that appeared in the Pittsburgh Press and a copy of the article submitted for publication in the Princeton Alumni Weekly.

With warmest regards,

Sincerely,

Peter Denby
