Jan. 15th 1946

Dear Mr. Temianka:

I am sorry only now to be able to answer your kind letter.

I was hoping to see you and your wife in New York when I played with the Boston orchestra, but unfortunately I could not stay in New York longer than you help leave after the concert...

I am very sorry indeed that to be in Philadelphia on Jan. 26th. Where is your home? Where will you be in the spring?!

With very best wishes to Mrs. Temianka and yourself, and hoping to see you soon.

Sincerely yours
Gregor Piatigorsky
