Dear Friends,

How very kind of you to write us. I am often sorry that we lead such busy lives that we cannot see the people we really like and would enjoy being together with. We really have had a tough time. First our son was ill for four months with hepatitis followed by an emergency appendix operation, then Mr. Neutra had two major operations, I got pneumonia during one, and when he returned a week ago, he came down with pneumonia, too. He still has a nurse, but we both are on the way to recovery. We hope to be well enough to follow an invitation to Turkey next month, but we very much hope to be able to see you before we fly away again.

With all good wishes,

Cordially,

Dione Neutra

I hope you got my message
How much enjoyment
and comfort I had
from listening to your Kovell record!
in my sick bed!
most sincerely
