Rotterdam, 2 Febr. 1922

Dear Temianka,

I was at your concert in the Doele [Hall] until the intermission, and I just came home and feel the need to thank you for the great pleasure that you gave me, and, let me say very candidly, to express my admiration for your wonderful talent. Use it, develop it to the best of your ability, and I am convinced that you have a beautiful career ahead of you. Also think of your general evolution, especially literature and the arts in general, because if you are spiritually and mentally well equipped, that will help you to understand and guide your artistic concepts.

With warmest greetings,

H. Oberman
