Dear Henri.

I arrived here yesterday afternoon and went to the Leighton's reception in the evening. ~~I~~ was dumfounded, desolated, despairing, discomfounded and bedamned to discover you are not with us this year. How come? desperately disappointed. I was so looking forward to greeting you, embracing you, and to many an intimate and hearty pow-wow. Kergonia! as Toscanini would have had it.

These are just a few lines to vent my rue. Will write much more anon.

My love to you all, and let me hear from you eftsoon.

Affectionately

William

Dear Henri,

I arrived here yesterday afternoon and went to the Leighton's reception in the evening. I was dumfounded, desolated, despairing, discombobulated and bedamned to discover you are not with us this year. How come? desperately disappointed. I was so looking forward to greeting you, embracing you, and to many an intimate and hearty pow-wow. Vergonia! As Toscanini would have had it.

These are just a few lines to vent my rue. Will write much more anon.
