GENERAL PERSHING has asked us not to give up our War Risk Insurance, at least until we have returned to the U. S. and had full opportunity of studying the new form of Government contracts, to which the present contracts may be converted. I am going to do as General Pershing has asked.

Dear Mather;

Just a few lines to let you know I am still in the land of the living and also in the best of health, but absolutely broke. Please send a few goppers.
