My dear Robert:

Your letter
came to me this morning and I sure was glad to hear from you. Had a letter from Varnie last Tuesday, and it was such an interesting letter, and I was more than please to hear from him, and at a same time so sorry to learn that he had been sick. Robert, I have forgotten what St. Varnie is in and I want to answer his letter right away, as Robert would you please send Varnie's address to me right away. He told me that he had sendt home some picture of himself, and asked if I had seen them. I sure shall want to see them when I get back home. Just think that Clarence is safely over there, and I sincerely hope that he will come back home safe and sound, together with all our boys. Tell Robert perhaps I will see you in Burlington some more before you enter training, which I sincerely hope. I have not been up to the Camp yet, as every time I plan to go something turns up.

But I suppose I will get there some time.

You Robert I shall be so glad if you will send me Varnie's address, and next time I shall write you a real long letter, and I shall be waiting to hear from you again
Your friend Anna.
