Dear Stephanie,

Feb 15th

Hi, how are you? I enjoyed the cookies very much, and thank you for sending me the Playoffs news paper. I'm sorry I haven't written in awhile but, I've been very busy with this war and all. Things are starting to slow down a little.

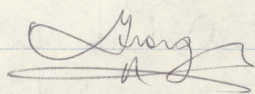

So, how was the snow, that's one thing about home I definitely miss. The poem was very nice, I'll make sure to save it. Today I finally have a day off, I slept for half of it, now I'm going to catch up on my letters. Believe it or not, you are the first one I'm writing too.

Not much new over here, I have been playing the guitar a lot though. You see, just before Christmas I bought a guitar and I've practiced almost everyday since I got it. Well, it's been almost two months now and I figured it's time to start playing some songs. I tried all the songs I could think of and had all sorts of trouble. So, being the writer I am, I wrote a few songs and now I've started to ~~play~~ them. My guitar playing isn't the problem anymore, my singing is. So, now I've got to practice on my voice. Wish me luck.

So, tell me about yourself? How old are you? What do you look like? (Do you have a picture you can send me) I dont know if I too told you about me. Cant wait to tell you again.

Well, I'm going to turn 21 in two weeks, March 1st I'm originally from Long Island myself, Port Jefferson. I'm single and I dont have a picture to send you but, I'll give a little description of me for now until I get one. I'm 5'6", Brown hair, Hazel eyes and I'm pretty athletic. I like baseball, football and my favorite of all time, Hockey. I'm a New York Ranger fan until the end.

My younger brother just turned 17 and my sister is 15. I'm the big brother trying to set some good standards for them. You know what I mean? Well, I'd really love to keep writing but, I got a lot to do today. I'll be looking forward to hearing from you!

Take Care,
