Lieber Herr Temianka!

Es war sehr lieb von Ihnen, dass Sie an uns dachten. Meine Frau wird leider zu diesem Tage schon zurückgefahren sein, ich werde aber gewiss unter den Zuhörenden sein und ausserdem trachten, möglichst viele mitzubringen. Ich weiss, wie wichtig dieser Start für Sie ist und wie sehr es andererseits auch den Künstler fördert, ein wirkliches Publikum vor sich zu wissen.

Mit den herzlichsten Grüssen Ihr

Herman Zweis

11 Portland Place                      London, 23. May 1934.

Dear Mr. Temianka!

It was very dear of you that you thought of us. Unfortunately my wife will already have returned home today, but I will certainly be in your audience, and will try in addition to bring as many others with me as possible. I know how important this start [sic] is for you, and how much it serves the artist's interests to have a real public in front of him.

With the most cordial greetings, your
