Dear Emmy & Henry

You are such wonderfully thoughtful friends. Again I find myself surprised and grateful for another unusual, imaginative and very personally satisfying gift. We have had a great deal of fun looking back to the events of March 5, 1939 and looking at the amusing advertising slogans of the time... And you can be sure that there will be much more exposure in the future.

As the binding is so strikingly handsome that we can't think of putting it anywhere but within easy reach.

Sincere thanks for your gift and for your friendship.
