Facing the music

Robert M. Aragon M.D.

1973

H.T the maestro was born
When the muses were torn which gift to bestow
to this talented youth.
Virtuoso of the violin
and the baton
the world he had at his talon.
Sons he had
A tree he must plant
To complete the trilogy
alas! a book . . . . .
Son, tree and book
tradition writes
crowns the glory of man's sights
To break the adage
and bolster his id
Emmy had to be add
