Dear Emmy,

How sad for all of us to lose Henri. But of course we will carry many wonderful memories with us always. Gary and I feel particularly fortunate to have been able to spend that evening together just a few months ago, when he seemed really in top form. And I had the additional pleasure of transcribing the tapes of our "interview" which was so instructive and, of course, so funny. Gary will make a copy for you + we'll send it for you to add to what I imagine must be a fabulous archive of a life so superbly lived.

Our hearts go out to you and the family, and we send all our sympathy + love

Gary and Naomi
