Dear, dear friend, Henri:-

Some months ago my Bonnie conceived the idea of an Album of letters from my family, friends and associates as a surprise gift for my 75th birthday. Two miracles resulted. The first, Bonnie's complex stratagem was 100% successful; the gift was a total surprise. The second, the letters themselves and their incredible number.

You were among the over three hundred and fifty angels who responded to Bonnie's plea and write letters to me, creating not an album, but FIVE big ones! I hope this will explain why it has taken me so long to acknowledge your kindness.

The variety of the letters is fascinating, but they all share one quality in common; all of them express friendship, admiration and affection. Truly, "my cup runneth over" and my gratitude is infinite.

Your letter is a blessing and a treasure; it has added dimension to my joy in being a survivor. — Your overwhelmingly generous compliments, dear Henri, make me blush of course, but, more importantly, they fill my heart and soul with a warm glow. To be so praised by a Colleague Artist whom I respect and admire as I do you, is to be praised and honored indeed! I pray that I may be worthy and I send you a thousand thanks. — Bonnie joins me in fond embraces and messages of love for you and Emmy.
Your ever-devoted — Johnny
