Dear, dear Emmy and Henri:-

There are no words with which to express properly how thrilled, deeply touched and totally surprised I was by the magnificently friendly and generous Christmas gift in which you participated. That you joined in making possible the "activation" of a star for me in Hollywood's Walk of Fame made Christmas '72 one of the great events of my life. My humble gratitude and heart-felt thanks are infinite.

You would have had this acknowledgement sooner but for the fact that only today was I able to acquire the complete list of all the wonderful people who have contributed. To say that I am completely overwhelmed is to state my feelings mildly!

My restated, loving thanks, together with my wishes for a great and rewarding New Year. God bless you!

It was an added lovely surprise to find your names among the contributors. You compliment me highly and honor me greatly, my dear Emmy and Henri. You have made me very happy.

Most cordially always —
John
