Dear Henri:

As promised, herewith is the list you were good enough to write out for me. It is for your perusal, and you may wish to add to it, or delete from it.

My June schedule is not yet set, but I will be most happy, if my programme takes me to New York around the last week in June, to welcome you for a photographic session -- in your new black turtle-neck! Actually, one-half a day will suffice for our photography.

We have heard from Eugene and Flora Golden in the form of a warm letter and a recording of the Mozart Concerto he brought to your home the day of your brunch--such a gracious thing to do. And, may I say, so typical of the close friends the Temiankas would have.

Estrellita and I send fondest affection to you and to Emmy,

Sincerely,

Yousuf Karsh
