R.S.V.P.

Contributing and higher category members ($75 and up) of the California Chamber Symphony Society are invited to attend this gala and enchanting event on November 22nd.

Attendance is limited to members who have paid their 1981-82 dues. Your membership card will be held at the door and will serve as your ticket of admission. To insure your reservation. R.S.V.P. immediately, using the enclosed envelope.

Please note: membership admits the member plus one guest only.

Dear Friends:

Membership in the California Chamber Symphony Society is a rare and delightful blend of musical and social rewards. Your membership makes possible the unique musical contribution of the California Chamber Symphony, under the direction of Henri Temianka, to the cultural life of Southern California. It also helps bring symphonic music to thousands of culturally deprived children through its renowned "Concerts for Youth" series.

Your membership in the Chamber Symphony Society is an introduction to an exciting world of music and new friendships. There are six different levels of membership from which to choose, each fully tax deductible.

Many businesses, foundations and corporations have made meaningful financial contributions to the California Chamber Symphony Society – as underwriters, benefactors, sponsors and members. Your public-spirited support will receive recognition throughout the season. If your company would like further information, call 658-8944.

$50 Introductory Membership

Introductory memberships make wonderful gifts for any occasion, especially during this Holiday Season, and they are fully tax deductible. Recipients of your Gift Membership will receive a handsome gift card in your name, together with an autographed copy of Maestro Temianka's book Facing the Music, plus two reserved orchestra seats at one Royce Hall concert.

$75 Contributing Membership

Two invitations to the Membership Tea Dance, November 22, invitations to post concert parties to meet soloists, orchestra and fellow members in the elegant reception room at Royce Hall. (Contributing Members have the privilege of inviting additional guests to the Membership Tea Dance, at a cost of $15 per guest.)

$250 Sponsor

All the above plus the thrill of an evening of great chamber music performed by celebrated artists in a beautiful home.

$500 Allegro Aficionados

All the above plus a special evening of string quartets in a beautiful private home honoring the Allegro Aficionados, Benefactors and Corporate members.

$1,000 (and up) Benefactor

$1,500 (and up) Corporate Membership

Invitation for ten to the November 22nd Membership Tea Dance. Half page (black and white) advertisement in the upcoming Commemorative International Tour Album of the California Chamber Symphony, plus two paid invitations to the elegant Allegro Ball 1982.

CALIFORNIA CHAMBER SYMPHONY SOCIETY, INC.

Sponsor of the California Chamber Symphony

Henri Temianka, Founder/Director

The California Chamber Symphony Society, Inc. was founded in 1961, as a sponsoring, fundraising mechanism for the California Chamber Symphony. It is no secret that orchestras, even the smallest, cannot survive on the proceeds of ticket sales alone. In the case of the California Chamber Symphony, this is especially true for its extensive Concerts for Youth program, where no admission is charged at all. From Juvenile Hall to such schools for handicapped and disturbed children as Widney and Lokrantz, the value of these concerts has been incalculable. With special emphasis on the underprivileged of every race and every minority, great live orchestra music has been brought, free of charge, to youthful audiences throughout the county of Los Angeles for the past 20 years. This has only been possible because of the support of the dues paying membership organization, as well as the National Endowment for the Arts, the City and County of Los Angeles, the Musicians' Union Local 47, the California Arts Council, and others.
