The President's Message

DEAR GUILD MEMBERS:

Again it is spring – the first signs of the return of the birds and of nature's beginning her preparations for summer and the warm weather ahead. Just so we as Guild members need to renew ourselves for the activities ahead of us for the remaining Guild year.

There are several things for us to keep in mind before the end of the fiscal year of June 30, 1959. Please have your treasurers send in your chapters monies to the national treasurer, Mrs. Jay H. Doud, Route 5, Valparaiso, Indiana. Have them indicate where the money is to be allotted. This must be in her hands promptly by June 25th in order to be printed in our convention agenda so that your chapter receives credit for the year's activities.

Another reminder – it is important that the secretary of your chapter send in a report of all your members to Mrs. Ruprecht. New officers are to be listed as well.

We should particularly like to draw your attention to a renewed effort on the part of all of you to participate in the Patron Program which we agreed to sponsor at the last national convention. We ask that you endeavor to obtain two new patrons for the University as your Guild contribution during the Centennial year. Elsewhere in the Bulletin you will see a reminder of this effort – won't you please help us to make it an overwhelming success?

The BIG event to mark on your Guild calendar is the national convention for the Centennial year, held September 25-26-27. We are happy to announce that the dedication of our special Gloria Christi Chapel will take place on Sunday, the 27th, as well as the dedication of the University Chapel-Auditorium. This will be a big day in the lives of all of us -- please try to be present to celebrate with us. It is most important that you heed the instructions, which will be mailed to you in the Flash, pertaining to housing and early registration this year. Guild conventions are always something special – won't you attend this year?

Mabel C. Frank,
National President

NOTE :

A suggestion has been made for chapters to arrange a summer get-together for all students in their area who are planning to attend Valpo in the fall. This will be an excellent chance for the students to become acquainted with one another and to discuss their forthcoming college days.

President Kretzmann

The Executive Secretary of the Guild is rapidly becoming my favorite "haunter." Once a day she appears in the office to tell me that a few words should be written for the Guild Bulletin and that they were due the day before yesterday. With my usual obedience whenever an officer of the Guild gives an order I now am prepared to carry out her commands.

A few days ago I had breakfast with about fifty of the leading women in the city of Valparaiso and Porter county. They were gathered in order prepare for the community effort which is a part of our Centennial program. I was very much interested in the fact that they brought to the problems of the University the same intelligent understanding and sympathy which I have found in the members of the Guild these many years. During the discussion period many of the same questions were asked which we have discussed at Guild conventions and Executive Board meetings for the past decade. Once more I was confirmed in my opinion that women bring to the problems of the younger generation a profoundly sympathetic understanding which is of central importance in the building of a great institution.

Undoubtedly you have been hearing something about the progress of our program for the Centennial year. It has aroused wide attention, and the eminent people who have come to the campus to speak have drawn large crowds and have been uniformly interesting. Perhaps you heard about Lord Atlee's famous remark concerning our tea. When I asked him how he liked America on this trip, he answered: "You know, we didn't mind your dumping our tea into Boston harbor, but we do object to your dredging it up and serving it to us two hundred years later." Lord Atlee apparently feels that there is only one way to make tea -- there must be a warm pot; scalding, boiling water; and no tea bags. In fact, his contempt for tea bags was magnificent.

Seriously, however, the Centennial program has already made a very vital contribution to the intellectual and spiritual life of the campus. At the present moment we are now looking forward to the great Te Deum service on May 10 and the festivities surrounding the Centennial Commencement on June 6 and 7. If you are within reach of the campus on either one of these days, I hope you will join us. We would be happy to share the joy of these occasions with you.

As I told the Executive Board at their meeting in February, our greatest financial problem still lies in the area of the day-by-day expenses of the University. It is strange how many people feel that we are very wealthy since we are erecting all the new buildings on East Campus. It must be said again and again that all these buildings are either the gifts of individuals or the result of Government loans. They do not reflect our great need for constant support for the salaries for our faithful faculty, the buying of new equipment and the maintenance of a good school in every sense of the word. It is my hope, therefore, that also the patron program now being conducted by the Guild will be a great success. It will mean very much to us as we begin to look forward to the second century in the history of the school. Whatever you can do to help the cause along will be deeply appreciated by all of us on the campus.

At the present time we have about 1,050 applications approved and pending for the fall semester, 1959. We do not know, of course, how many of these will finally appear on the campus since we are still troubled with students who make application to more than one school. On the other hand, I am sure that a very large number will finally come to Valpo and that we will be able to show an enrollment increase next year. I am more deeply impressed than ever before with the high quality of the young men and women who are now applying for admission to the University. They constitute the Church's finest, and we are very proud of the fact that they are turning to Valpo for their college education. In the development of this entire program, many members of the Guild have been of very real and significant service to us. Hardly a week goes by but I receive a letter from a member of the Guild calling attention to a fine student who ought to come to Valparaiso. Such "leads" are always very important.

I hope to see some of you at the festivities during the next sixty days. Meanwhile my good wishes to you for your work for the University.

O.P. Kretzmann

Chapter Chatter

EVANSVILLE, IND.

A "student night" party, conducted annually by the Evansville chapter, was a great success. The film strip "This is the Difference" was shown as part of the program and the evening concluded with dancing and refreshments. In April mothers of high school students were invited to attend an anniversary tea at Trinity Parlor where Pastor Grumm showed colored slides of Valpo and Miss Lillian Boehne gave a review of the past 5 years activities. A special program was planned in February at which time Mrs. Josephine Ferguson, director of Student Services at Valpo, was the speaker. A Coffee to celebrate Valpo's Centennial year with a talk by Mr. Richard Meier will be given in spring.

ST. PAUL, MINN.

The following invitation, exhibiting the Valparaíso Centennial seal on the frontispiece was sent by members of the St. Paul chapter: "The Saint Paul Chapter of the Valparaíso Guild cordially invites you and your friends to a Centennial Buffet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Buetow, 1550 Edgcombe Road, on Sunday, November 9, 1958 from 4 to 7 p.m." This very successful project netted over seven hundred dollars for the chapter.

DEARBORN, MICH.

A Mixed Card Party sponsored by the Dearborn chapter, was held in April, together with a silent auction.

SAGINAW, MICH.

A golden anniversary luncheon was served members of the Saginaw chapter, after which a tour of the plant was made.

ROCHESTER, MINN.

The Rochester chapter sponsored the Valparaíso University Concert Band in Chatfield on Sunday, January 25. The fine publicity received for the school resulted in a tremendous success, with over 450 people in attendance.

CINCINNATI, OHIO

Mrs. Walter Hoppe of Cleveland was the guest speaker in September using as her topic "Parliamentary Procedure in Relation to Christian Principles." In January 80 women braved the elements, driving through flooded roads, to attend the meeting at St. Paul's, Madisonville, at which time "This is the Difference" was shown. The March meeting featured a "Birthday Party" for Valpo, together with invitations, corsages, candles and gifts as part of the Centennial year observance. Mrs. Erich Swertschek, a native Rumanian, spoke on "What Citizenship Means to Me." May will bring a "Family Night" program at which time Dr. A. R. Kretzmann will speak on the construction of the Chapel and the meaning of the various symbols used.

EASTERN CHAPTERS

Sponsored by the following chapters: Westchester - Bronx - Manhattan, Nassau-Suffolk, Queens-Brooklyn, New Jersey, First New England, and the Nutmeg State chapter, the Valparaíso Chapel Choir concert given in New York City at Immanuel Church on January 27 was a tremendous success. The large crowd of over 700 was thrilled with the presentation of the church liturgy entirely set to music. Due to fine publicity and cooperation of the various chapters a patron subscription and an offering resulted in excellent proceeds both for the choir and the chapters. Dinner was served to the choir members and in the words of the concert chairman, Mrs. Miriam Griessel, she stated "We feel the entire venture was blessed beyond our highest expectations."

NASSAU-SUFFOLK, N. Y.

Mrs. John C. Hinsch of Plainview, a former Valpo alumna, was the guest speaker at a meeting of this chapter in January. Mrs. Herbert Thole of Amityville, president, was pictured with Mrs. Hinsch in an issue of the Newsday paper.

NUTMEG STATE CHAPTER (CONN.)

A successful luncheon and food sale, conducted by this chapter, resulted in many new members for the Guild. Valentine decorations were used appropriate to the season and the napkins were imprinted with the words "Our Hearts are with Valpo." Place mats of red construction paper were used, together with the red napkins, and a profusion of hearts, cupids and doilies. Song sheets were distributed with Valpo songs to be sung during the meal.

ALEXANDRIA, IND.

An effort to gain more members for the chapter resulted in an evening's entertainment for the Alexandria chapter, at which time they invited the members of the Anderson chapter. The film "This is the Difference" was shown by the pastor, and Mrs. Ruprecht was the guest speaker for the evening. Games were played and refreshments were served from a lovely tea table featuring spring flowers.

ST. LOUIS, MO.

An outstanding program was presented by the St. Louis chapter at their annual spring tea. A lovely pageant was presented at 1:30 p.m. at Messiah Lutheran Church, April 3rd., directed and written by Mrs. Karl Kurth. Mothers of various nationalities were depicted and portrayed by soloists. The piano accompaniments were given by Mrs. Lucille E. Schmidt, Stage Manager was Mrs. Arthur C. Piepkorn, Properties by Mrs. Carl Zschoche, Costumes by Mrs. Rex Becker, Program by Mrs. Otto Sohn, Narrator, Mrs. Walter Hansen, with a cast of eleven members. According to Mrs. Frederick Schuermann, president, excellent publicity was received in the St. Louis papers, for this very fine program.

TOLEDO, OHIO

Invitations in the form of old-fashioned tinnies and made to look like a portrait of a Guild member of long ago were most cleverly executed and sent to a large number of women in the Toledo area asking them to attend a Spring Tea at Memorial Lutheran Church on Sunday, April 12. A delightful poem, written by Ruth Randolph Hueter, served as the invitation proper. Mrs. E. H. Ruprecht was the speaker for the afternoon membership tea, where attendance resulted in approximately 90 women. Lovely pink and white flowers graced the tea-table and groups visited informally at the "round tables" later in the afternoon.

MT. CLEMENS, MICH.

The president of the Mt. Clemens Chapter, Mrs. Louis Heinecke, was featured in an article printed in the Utica Sentinel. A part of the paper called "Let's Go Calling On. . ." by Iris Lawson devoted several columns to Mrs. Heinecke, her background, her family, her work in church affairs, and of particular interest her work in the Valparaiso Guild. Her activities consist of a vital interest in so many church and community organizations, and her great interest in people is shown by her busy program. She is the mother of seven children and has 16 grandchildren. She is gracious, enthusiastic and deeply loved by all who know her.

ST. PETERSBURG, FLORIDA

An invitation to attend a luncheon and business meeting at the home of Mrs. M. Ruprecht on April 8th, was issued to all who live in or were visiting the St. Petersburg area. A membership renewal card was enclosed and the note "We hope our northern visitors will attend this meeting and have another reunion with old acquaintances who may be attending our churches in this area" resulted in a fine attendance.

DECATUR CIRCUIT, IND.

The Decatur Circuit held its tenth anniversary banquet on January 13. The candle lighting ceremony was conducted by the five past presidents. Mrs. Henry L. Meyer presided, Mrs. Robert Meyer acted as toastmistress and Mrs. Louis Jacobs gave a report of the past ten years in a series of interesting anecdotes. The principal speaker was the Rev. E. Nergler of St. Paul's, Ft. Wayne, and the Concordia High School Girls Trio and String Ensemble furnished the dinner music. Community singing was led by E. L. Nicol accompanied by Mrs. Nicol.

MONROE, MICH.

More than 250 attended the spring style show and tea at Grace Lutheran Fellowship Hall on April 15th. Models paraded in a lawn scene setting. The 18 large tables set around the room for guests were centered with dolls in fancy dresses. Hostesses were at each table. Miss Elsie E. Krug, guild president, extended welcome. The program was introduced by Mrs. Harold Rammler, Mrs. Kay Deyerle was narrator, Mrs. Mary Hoffman had charge of models, Leroy Prochnow handled recorded background music, and the girls of Trinity Lutheran high school choir sang under the direction of Elton Rudolph.

Haessler III, Valpo graduate of 1952 will show pictures of his travels in the 49th State, and many other enjoyable entertainment features are planned.

Welcome New Chapters

WESTERN MICHIGAN CHAPTER

Printed invitations were mailed to a large number of women in the Muskegon area, reading, "You are cordially invited to attend a coffee for the Valparaiso University Guild, Thursday, December 4, 1958, 8:00 p.m., Trinity Lutheran Church." For some time three women had been actively engaged in trying to promote a new chapter, namely, the Western Michigan field secretary from Grand Rapids, Mrs. Martin Brauer, Mrs. Ralph Richman from Holland, and Mrs. A. A. Schmidt from Muskegon. Mrs. E. H. Ruprecht had been invited to attend the meeting and it was fortunate that Mrs. Frank, national president, was in the vicinity at the time, and was able to accompany her. Both spoke on the advantages of Guild membership, the history of the Guild, and the University in general. The very fine attendance resulted in the desire of the women to join the national Guild, and to date members are listed from Muskegon, Grand Haven and Holland. We are happy to have this new chapter on the very western shores of Lake Michigan.

ADRIAN, MICH.

Mrs. Heinecke, field secretary of Eastern Michigan, wrote enthusiastically about her successful visit in Adrian where a chapter was organized in February. She wrote, "We probably picked the worst day of the winter weather-wise, but we had a very nice meeting and 14 women expressed their willingness to form this chapter." The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Walter Bohn assisted by Mrs. F. L. Miller, and with the very welcome counsel of Pastor Dobberfuhl. Officers of the chapter are: Pres., Mrs. Walter Bohn; vice-pres., Mrs. F. L. Miller; secretary, Mrs. Harold Brehmer.

PHOENIX, ARIZ.

When Mrs. D. H. Callow left her chapter in Decatur, Indiana and when Mrs. Malcer Johnson moved from Rockford, Illinois to Phoenix, Arizona, both women expressed their interest in forming a Guild chapter in that city. A most welcome letter from Mrs. Johnson early in January told of the fine meeting that had been held in the home of Mrs. Callow, where several interested women had attended and had agreed to organize a Guild. The fact that many people are moving into this area from places where Guilds had existed means that this new chapter should soon flourish into a fine, active group.

FARIBAULT, MINN.

Mrs. Walter Schmalz, field secretary in Minnesota, had hoped to report a new chapter from her state at the Executive Board meeting in February, and she was successful in doing so.

Several visits to Faribault resulted in a meeting held in February and the women declared their willingness to become members of the national Guild, thus becoming the fourth chapter organized in Minnesota. We welcome this group particularly since we are most eager to add to our chapters in this fine state. Officers are: Mrs. Julius Sorgatz, pres.; Mrs. Gordon Koster, vice-pres.; Mrs. Walter Wegner, sec'y; Mrs. Willie Ballenthin, treas.

ELMORE, OHIO

A new addition to the Valparaiso Guild is a chapter in Elmore, Ohio. Mrs. Alfred Heidtman, Ohio State Unit president, had addressed the women of the ladies aid in Elmore in fall and a meeting was suggested for the Spring, at which time Mrs. Ruprecht might attend. This meeting was held in April and resulted in a fine chapter. Mrs. Kontak, temporary president, had attended the Executive Board meeting in February, and brought back to the group much enthusiasm. Miss Anne Brauer, who was in the area, spoke of her work, and Pastor Muhlenbruck also addressed the women. Mrs. Ruprecht spoke of her happiness in having the Elmore group become the fifth chapter to join this past year.

TEANECK, N. J.

On May 1, Mrs. Roy C. Frank attended a meeting at Grace Lutheran Church in Teaneck. The meeting had been arranged by Mrs. C. R. Hammerness, inviting parents of students now on campus at Valpo, and former students now living in the area. A group of 16 women responded and after hearing Mrs. Frank talk about the Guild decided to affiliate with the national organization. Six congregations were represented and invitations will now be extended to all other women of the 17 congregations in the vicinity interested in Christian higher education. Mrs. C. R. Hammerness was elected temporary chairman, and Mrs. William R. Tatman, temporary secretary and treasurer. It is a distinct pleasure to now list two chapters in the state of New Jersey.

Officers elected at Wisconsin state convention, Appleton. Mrs. H. C. Johnson, Oshkosh, pres.; Mrs. Henry Kuhn, Appleton, sec'y; Mrs. E. A. Bartelt, Milwaukee, treas.

Mrs. C. R. Heidbrink reported on the Patron Plan. She encouraged Guild members to go outside of the Chapter for Patrons. A mimeographed report was distributed which listed 262 pledges with cash received in the amount of $4,030.13 and deferred payments of $235. Mrs. Heidbrink stated three additional Patrons had been received since the report was compiled.

The State Unit Presidents gave a short report on their respective State Unit meetings.

Mr. Richard Koenig, Director of Athletics, addressed the assembly on the topic "Valpo's Approach to Inter-Collegiate Athletics." He stated the athletic program must be one which will benefit all students and not only those who have superior athletic ability; that athletes must meet the same admission requirements as any other student; and that athletics aid the student in developing physically and mentally.

Mrs. E. H. Ruprecht, Executive Secretary, gave her report which included the following questions: "Have we really exerted all our efforts to promote the projects of our chapter? Are we really attempting to gain more new members? Have we begun to seek more patrons just during this year which is our Centennial effort for the University?" She reminded the members the National treasurer must receive all monies by June 25, 1959 so proper credit can be reported on the convention agenda. The convention will again be held the last week-end in September with dedication of the Gloria Christi Chapel, September 27. She hoped for a record-breaking attendance and urged all to send in their registration before the deadline.

Mrs. Jay Doud, (nee Charlotte Kirchen) Treasurer, submitted the following report for the period from June 18, 1958 to February 7, 1959:

Total Receipts	23,478.46

The President urged as many as possible to attend the National Convention in September.

Doctor O. P. Kretzmann addressed the meeting on "State of the University." He spoke concerning applications for next year's enrollment, housing needs for men students, and recent prominent guest speakers. He stated the real problem is the day-by-day support of the University. He believes the Patron Plan is the key to the situation and that the Guild members can play a distinct role in promoting this plan.

Following announcements by Mrs. E. H. Ruprecht, and a prayer by Doctor O. P. Kretzmann, the meeting adjourned at 11:00 a.m.

Ethelyn Baade, Secretary

When the national treasurer, Miss Charlotte Kirchen became Mrs. Jay H. Doud, Dr. Kretzmann presented her with a gift at a meeting of the Administrative Committee.

GUILD CARILLONS NOW IN USE

The 61-bell Schulmerich carillon, Arlington type, which has the same tone as that of Flemish bells (so named because the type is comparable to the carillon in Arlington National cemetery), is now being used at the University

Memorial Chapel. Two phrases of the Dresden Amen are now played by the carillon between classes. At 7:00 each morning the hymn "Oh, Blessed, Holy Trinity" is played and the evening hymn, "Now Rest Beneath Night's Shadow", will be played at 9:00. A ten-minute organ recital will be heard each weekday morning at 11:20 as a call to the daily chapel services. On Sundays the Canterbury chimes will be played every quarter hour from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. The unit operated by a clock mechanism, is housed in the basement of the Chapel. The sound electronically amplified from the 140-foot bell tower, can be heard for a radius of 2 miles, but when amplified fully, will be heard for five miles. The carillons were the gift of the Guild in observance of its 25th Anniversary.

PARLIAMENTARIAN'S CORNER

MRS. W. N. HOPPE

These questions were submitted by members of the Guild at the meeting of the Executive Board in February, 1959.

Question: (a) If the minutes of the Executive Board meeting have not been published but have been approved by a committee, is it proper to read the minutes at the next meeting?

(b) If the minutes are read, does the chair ask if there are any corrections?

Answer: (a) The fact that a committee has been authorized to correct and approve the minutes does not mean that they should not be read at the next meeting. If the assembly wishes to have them read for information it is correct to do so. It may also be in order to dispense with the reading of the minutes at the next meeting if that is the wish of the assembly.

(b) When the minutes are read, the chair may ask for questions or corrections even though a committee has already approved them. Minutes may be amended (corrected) at any time or whenever the error is noticed, regardless of the time that has elapsed. Such an amendment (correction) requires a two-thirds vote, unless previous notice of the proposed amendment has been given. In this case only a majority vote is required.

Question: When the reading of the minutes is dispensed with at a regular meeting does it mean that they are approved without reading?

Answer: Approval is not taken for granted. When the reading of the minutes is dispensed with at one meeting they are automatically read at the next meeting for approval. It is well to bear in mind, however, that when meetings are not held for a long period, as six months or a year, it is better to authorize a committee to correct and approve the minutes. This committee should be appointed early in the meeting so as to enable them to pay strict attention to the business transacted. This committee may be asked to report at the next meeting.

Question: How are the minutes signed?

Answer: Very simply, "Mary Smith, Secretary." The words "respectfully submitted" is old-fashioned and no longer customary in parliamentary practice. When minutes are approved by a committee their signatures, together with the word "Approved" and the date are added.

Question: What is the best method of appointing the nominating committee?

Answer: The nominating committee is a very important one and it has a real responsibility to perform. It should be a representative group, consisting of three, five, seven or more members, depending upon the size of the organization. General Henry M. Roberts lists eight methods for appointing committees, but adds that no one method is best under all circumstances. Because of the importance of the committee, whose duty it is to propose names for candidates for office, the organization membership should have full authority to elect the members of this committee. If the organization is a small one, meeting as often as monthly or bi-monthly, it may be well to elect the nominating committee in a regular business meeting previous to the election meeting. If this method is not feasible in a large organization then a representative group, such as the Executive committee or board may be given the privilege. The president should never assume this responsibility.

Question: What is the procedure in a chapter when the president is called on a point of order? When the president is correct in her interpretation, but is not able to convince the members - should she yield the point of order to expedite business?

Answer: It is the right of every member who notices a breach of a rule to insist upon its enforcement. The member says, "I rise to a point of order." Whereupon the chair responds with "State your point". After the breach has been stated, the chair declares the "point well taken" or "not well taken", as the case may be. She has the right also to give reasons for her decision. When she is in doubt she may consult experienced members for their opinions or she may refer it to the assembly for decision. If the chair immediately says she thinks the point not well taken and continues with the business as before, any two members may appeal from the decision of the chair, one making the appeal and the other seconding it. This throws the decision upon the assembly, the chair saying "the question is, shall the decision of the chair stand as the judgment of the assembly". "Those in favor of sustaining the decision of the chair say 'Aye'; those opposed say 'No'." It does not help to expedite business but rather it is a nuisance to have members raising points of order or technical points, when no harm is done by the irregularity. Members should weigh the point carefully and use good judgment.
