Inspiring Speeches By "Dad" Elliott and Dr. Bruce Curry

The "Y" Conference was closed Sunday morning with an address by Dr. Bruce Curry, who also spoke at the opening meeting on Thursday evening. Although this was the first state student conference to be held in Wisconsin, the attendance totalled 140. Representatives from River Falls Normal, Milwaukee Normal, Milwaukee Downer, the University of Wisconsin, Milton College, Carroll College, Beloit College, Stout Institute, Whitewater Normal, Wayland Academy, Northland College, and Lawrence were present. River Falls Normal with nineteen delegates, had the largest representation.

In the closing address Dr. Curry asserted that we are under obligation to impart the truths which we learn. According to Dr. Curry, it was proved when Jesus spoke in parables to His people that all are not able to understand the great truths. Few, said the speaker, make the most of the opportunities God gives them to apply His principles.

Dr. Curry also spoke on Friday evening, emphasizing the need for a rediscovery of the religion of Jesus. People are prone to "sidestep" the teachings of Jesus, said Dr. Curry.

"Dad" Elliott, another prominent speaker at the conference, spoke Friday afternoon on the need of cooperation between students of all countries. According to Mr. Elliott, students of the Orient, especially those of Japan, resent the attitude of racial superiority shown by many Americans and the superimposition of western methods on eastern civilizations. The remedy for industrial, political, and international evils, said the speaker, is to be found in the spirit of love. We must trust, he said, when we cannot understand.

"Dad" Elliott has been in the field of student work for nineteen years and is at present Regional Secretary for the Student Department of the National Council of the Central Region of the Y.M.C.A.

Other special features of the conference were the Geneva Get-together at 6 P.M. Friday, the Down-river breakfast at 6:30 a.m. Saturday, and the International Banquet at 6:30 Saturday evening. Toasts, led by Win Bird, '26, toastmaster, addresses by Mr. R. E. Hannus, Mr. Frederick Fung, '29, and Mr. C. V. Hubbard, General Student Secretary at Madison, were a part of the program at the banquet. Musical numbers were given by Miss Caroline Hess, Miss Barbara Ruch, '26, Miss Pearl Felton, '28, and Mr. Frederick Fung, '29.

"World in Midst Of Great Crisis," Fulkerson

"The world is at the present moment in the midst of the greatest crisis, or series of crises, through which civilization has ever passed," said Dr. E. M. Fulkerson, general field secretary of Methodist foreign missions, in his chapel speech on Friday.

The reason that the world's present position is so critical is that this is the first time in the story of civilization when every nation in the world reached a crisis at or near the same time. In the past, when individual nations were experiencing their crisis the world as a whole was normal.

The speaker closed with a plea for a new interpretation of the evangelical Christ to enter into every heart, and cast out all the race hatred and social unrest which is placing civilization in its present critical position.

College Play "The Admirable Crichton" At Chapel Monday

Miss Florence Lutz, Dramatics Instructor, Is Director of Annual Production

Lawrence is fortunate in having a director of dramas as experienced and competent as Miss Florence Lutz. Miss Lutz has taught at the Sargent School of Acting, New York, and has acted as assistant professor of voice culture at the University of California, and as dean of the school of Expression at Boston. She has trained several of the leading actors and actresses of today, both of the stage and the screen, such as Clare Eames, Margalo Gillmore, Joseph Schildkraut, Douglas MacLean, and many others.

Miss Lutz has chosen a play by Barrie because it is good literature. She says that there has always been criticism against college productions because they are not up to a high standard. This particular play of Barrie's was chosen because of its variety of scene and costumes, its great appeal to the public, and because it is a delightful comedy.

There are three changes of scenery in "The Admirable Crichton." One is the reception room in the English home; one a desert island with the shore stretching away, and the sea in the distance; and the third scene is inside of the cabin on the island. This home is quite a contrast to the home where the tea took place, yet it is not altogether unattractive.

To Speak at Y. W.

Miss Marjorie Dimmitt of Chicago will speak Thursday evening at the Y.W.C.A. meeting on Isabella Thoburn College of Lucknow, India. Miss Dimmitt was formerly connected with the college, a missionary school which the Lawrence Y.W.C.A. helps support.

Stunt Night Called Off

Because of eleventh-hour withdrawals on the part of several groups of students which had promised to appear in the program, the vaudeville stunt night planned for tonight in Memorial chapel under auspices of Tormentors, campus dramatic organization, has been called off.

Those in charge of the event had arranged for seven acts to be presented as the evening's entertainment, four of which were withdrawn for various reasons over the week-end. Rather than give the campus a scanty program, Tormentors decided to give up the plan.

Persons who purchased tickets for the event may have their money refunded by returning the tickets to the one from whom they were purchased.

Twenty High Schools In Contest Here

Annual Oratorical and Speaking Contest To Be Held Thursday

With a list of thirty entrants to date, the annual Oratorical and Extemporaneous Speaking Contest on Thursday, May 20, bids fair to exceed all others yet held. Approximately twenty high schools are sending participants for both the oratorical and extemporaneous speaking contests.

Prizes in the two contests consist of scholarships at Lawrence College, the first place winner receiving a two year scholarship, the second place winner, a one year scholarship, and third place winner a semester scholarship. In addition to the scholarships, the winners of first and second places receive gold and silver medals.

Last year Washington High of Milwaukee made a clean sweep of the two contests, the prize-winning orator and the leading extemporaneous speaker being from the Milwaukee school.

In addition to the individual contest prizes, there is a handsome plaque to be awarded the school that has the best team record. Washington High's individual contestants' victories in two divisions made them the easy winners of this plaque in 1925.

The contest, an annual one, is sponsored by the Lawrence College Forensic Board. In the past, many of Lawrence's outstanding forensic men won scholarships in these contests and in this manner received their start on a public speaking career.

Of the men in college at present, Willard Hemen, Win Bird, William Verhage, Erwin Marquardt, Charles Barnard, and Richard Nelson received recognition in this manner.

Muriel Kelley Will Speak at Convention

Miss Muriel Kelley, '20, national treasurer of Theta Sigma Phi, will be one of the speakers at the University of Missouri Journalism Week at Columbia, Missouri, May 15 to 20. Her subject will be "The Field of Journalism in a Small City."

The combined program of over one hundred editors and writers includes all the national council of the fraternity. Miss Sarah Lockwood, Theta Sig's president, will be hostess. She is the only woman professor of journalism in the United States.

W.A.A. Cup Will Be Awarded on May Day

Awarding of a cup to the most representative athletic girl will take place this year on May Day, during the part of the May Day program taken over by the women's "L" club, which begins at 9 o'clock, on the campus.

A stunt presented by the "L" club, to which everyone is invited, will be the first event. Then follows the awarding of pins and sweaters to those girls who have won a sufficient number of W.A.A. points by participating in the various sports.

The final tennis match among the girls will also be played off in the morning.

President Returns

President Henry M. Wriston returned from a nine days' trip to New York and Boston yesterday. While in Boston, he attended the inauguration of Dr. Daniel L. Marsh as president of Boston University.

Guests at the Delta Iota house over the week-end included Roy Grignon, '24, Marinette, William Jarretand, John Williams, Wayland Academy, and Newell Clapp, Merrill.

Snyder Elected State Y. M. President

Harry Snyder, '27, was elected president of the State Y.M.C.A. organization, consisting of the different local college associations throughout the state, at a meeting of that group last Saturday during the State Student Conference here. He will take the place of Ted Jensen, '26, of River Falls Normal who held this position last year.

Walter Rogers, '29, of the University of Wisconsin, and Donald Freudenthal, '27, of Milwaukee State Normal were elected as the other two regional members of the regional council of the state.

Attend Student Research Conference

Miss Twila Lytton, dean of women, and Miss Ellen Tutton, secretary to Dean Naylor, spent the week-end in Minneapolis, Minnesota, where they attended a conference on Student Research which was held at the University of Minnesota.

The conference was under the joint auspices of the Personal Research Federation, the American Council on Education, and the National Research Council on Personnel Research.

Placing the emphasis in college administration on the individual rather than on the group was the chief point of discussion at the conference. Much interest is now being shown in this idea, due to the fact that since more people are now entering colleges, individual emphasis is difficult to obtain. The immense amount of knowledge which has been gained as a result of scientific research in the realm of that psychology which has to do with individual differences has further aided to increase interest in personnel work.

The various fields of educational interest and activity open to the student were discussed, as was also the idea of the importance of individual differences.

With these two ideas in mind, the conference considered the adjustment of students' individual differences to the various educational fields, so as to bring about the happiest relationship between their work and their natural aptitudes.

Plans are being made to organize personnel service for students here at Lawrence, with the hope that more and more professors will use it in their relations with their classes.

After the conference Miss Tutton went to her home in Palmyra from where she returned today.

Saturday's Tennis Match Ends In Tie

Handicapped by the loss of La-Borde and Heideman the Lawrence racket-wielders were forced to accept a tie in their tennis match with Ripon last Saturday in which they won three and lost three of their sets.

"Bob" Hanke and Page Johnson succeeded in vanquishing their opponents in their doubles set while Cooper and Aderhold tasted defeat only after giving their Redman opponents a hard battle. In the singles matches Hanke and Johnson again bested their opponents easily. Aderhold and Cooper played good tennis but their opponents finally came out on top.

Students Present Recital in Milwaukee

Seven students from the studio of Miss Gladys Brainard presented a recital at the Milwaukee Institute of Music last evening at 8:15 o'clock. Miss Brainard is a member of the faculty of that institution. Those who participated in the program were: Misses Older, Boyce, Hearti, and Kern and Messrs. Mursell, Bacon, and Morris.

Professor O. P. Fairfield has been at home because of illness for the last few days.

'27 Ariel, Released Today, Dedicated To Mrs. W. S. Naylor

Theme Of This Year's Book Is Taken From Shakespeare's "Tempest"

From the Ariel sprite, dancing in a gold medallion across the jet-black cover of the new 1927 Ariel, to the same, care-free, gay spirit of the College Life department, there rings out throughout the Lawrence college yearbook, being released today, the theme of Shakespeare's Ariel, taken from his play, "The Tempest."

In this spirit, the annual is dedicated to Mrs. Wilson S. Naylor, the first to suggest the name of Ariel for our Lawrence annual. In the words of the dedication, it is to "the woman whose knowledge of Lawrence life in its true meaning gave her the inspiration which embodied and perpetuated the ideal of the true college spirit in the name Ariel, and thus created the theme about which—"the '27 yearbook is built.

Gordon Clapp, '27, editor-in-chief, and Richard Nelson, '27, business manager, are the two, who by their work throughout the year, have made this book of memories and happy recollections.

In its pictures of the elm-shaded campus, the Ariel gives a theme of beauty from the start. The pages with the Ariel sprite dancing on their margins, carry on this impression of loveliness and joyous aspiration. In the tree-shaded, fawn-eared characters who prance through the title-pages, in their high-gilted rural smocks, in the spirit of out-of-doors, in the tangle of the woods, in all these characteristics of the illustrations and drawings, we find the same dominant freedom and abandon.

Jeannette Herriek, '28, is the one who has had charge of the art of the Ariel, of the feature that has given it so much beauty. Harlan Hackbert, '27, comes across with a skit on the Greek societies, laid on the stage of the Appleton Theater, which is even more of a burlesque than the usual proceedings there.

In the Lawrence Life section, edited by Wilma Thiede, '27, are snaps and photos, sure to bring back to the minds of all some event of the day on which they were taken. Royal La-Rose, '27, gives us a snappy review of the sport season of the past year, that makes vivid once more the teams crouching, the sound of cheering from the stands, and the thrill of victory.

The administration section is handled by John Taras, '26, in a new and personal way that almost makes you

May Queen Will Be Crowned During Pageant, "The Kingdom of Happiness"

May Day Program

6:00-9:00 a.m.—Waffle Breakfast, Olive Hamar House.
10:00-12:00 a.m.—Semi-final interfraternity tennis meets.
2:30 p.m.—Pageant on grounds.
8:00-11:30 p.m.—Open air dance on the greensward.

May Day, the annual spring carnival day, is scheduled for Friday, and class work is to be put aside while students and faculty enter into the May-Fete festivities. An unusually attractive program of events is offered, of which the May Day pageant is probably the center of interest.

The pageant, "The Kingdom of Happiness," was written and directed by Miss Burrow and includes approximately 150 girls in thirty-three dances. The feature of the pageant consists of the crowning of the May Queen, Gertrude Walton, '26, who was chosen for this honor by the vote of the girls early in April. Her herald and crown bearer will be Gladys Jarrett, '26, and Bernice Porterfield, '26, the girls who received the next highest number of votes.

The story of the pageant gives the search of a group of children for the Kingdom of Happiness after they have celebrated the crowning of their own May Queen amidst much festivity. After a long quest they find Ariel, the sprite of happiness and helpfulness, who dances for them and tells them in his dance that the Kingdom of Happiness is not in a certain land but is found in one's own heart. Ariel then takes them into the presence of the Queen whom they recognize as their own beloved May Queen. The pageant closes with the coming of twilight and the night.

Bleachers will be set up on the campus and the section where the pageant is to be given will be wired off. The dressing rooms and the other properties will be erected this week.

The Waffle Breakfast at the Olive Hamar House earlier in the day, and the interfraternity semi-finals in tennis will also be drawing cards.

The day will close with an unusual feature, an open air dance on the greensward in front of the library. George Niedert, '28, is in charge of the dance committee, and is promising that it will be the best ever, with an Oshkosh orchestra to furnish the music. Refreshments will be sold near the library during the afternoon and evening, and the campus will be lighted by strings of lights covered with Japanese lanterns.

Arrangements for the ticket sale for both the pageant and the dance will be announced later, but the price of admission to the pageant will probably include that for the dance also.

Erb Examination Will Be Saturday, May 22

The examination is open to third and fourth year students of German only.

wish you hadn't cut classes quite so often. Gertrude Walton, '26, has edited the senior class; Helen Davy, '27, the juniors; Herbert Weber, '28, the underclasses; Jean Jackson, '28, the conservatory; Forrest Muck, '27, the college activities; and Helen Diederich, '27, the organizations.

Contributors' Column

More Than a Game
 Last week's contributors' column contained a bit of incomprehensible jargon entitled "What is the Goal?" which succeeded in mystifying all the uninformed. The article dealt with a subject which is worth getting straight, and for that reason I want to clear up some of the mystery surrounding the contribution.

The sporting columns of this issue of the Lawrentian tell of the victory of the Phi Kappa Alpha baseball team over that of Delta Iota in the interfraternity ball league at Brandt Park Saturday. It does not tell, however, the detailed story behind that victory, which is the point of this contribution.

The interfraternity baseball schedule rests in the hands of the Athletic Department. Once it sets the dates of the games they can be changed only with the consent of the two teams involved. This department set the date for the Delta Iota-Phi Kappa game for May 15.

Delta Iota and Phi Kappa Alpha, previous to Saturday's game, were leading the league. The game was crucial and the winner would be the winner of the season's schedule.

It happened that four members of the Delta Iota baseball team had to go to Beloit Saturday to compete for Lawrence against the Beloit track team. The fraternity asked that the game be postponed. Phi Kappa Alpha, with its team intact, refused to postpone the game. It was played, and the Phi Kaps won, 9-7, in the last inning of the game, largely because of the poor hitting by the substitute Delta Iota players.

The incident is worthy of mention because it was the only climax to be expected from the conditions of so-called friendly interfraternity rivalry that have permeated campus life in a disgusting manner during the years that I have known it—a condition that has intensified steadily as each new year began.

This is by no means the only example of unsportsman-like interfraternity rivalry that might be cited, but it is certainly a flagrant one, and one in which the college plays the role of the goat.

Inter-group sports can be wholesome and so constructed as to build up college spirit instead of tearing it down, but when they become, as they have become at Lawrence, nothing less than sanctioned warfare, it is time for someone to call a halt.

Phi Kappa Alpha has probably won a baseball cup! But has not Lawrence college lost, in awarding an honor for a purpose which has been definitely defeated?

Theta Sig Supplement

I appreciated Theta Sig's literary supplement a lot, but wish the proof reading had been better. A plural instead of a singular can be forgiven, but to spell the possessive pronoun "its" as if it were a contraction for "it is"—and to repeat the error twice—is, in the spelling of the Lawrentian, "disasterous."

Nevertheless, proof reading and even spelling are, after all, minor matters when compared with the vitality and determination that made the supplement possible. Theta Sig deserves a plum as being the only group on the campus that cares very much what Lawrence students are writing about.

An Instructor.

Relative Importance

Different points of view always exist. Different methods of putting things across appeal with greater or less force. A few of us realized that Friday as we sat in the Sub-Auditorium of the chapel listening to the quiet, low, convincing voice of Dr. Curry, showing us the modern interpretation of the standards of the greatest Man who ever lived, filling us with those principles of righteousness upon which not only life but eternity is based.

Through the open door came the loud pompous voice from the main auditorium probably telling the greater number of students the methods he had used to become a success in life. When the speaker upstairs stopped there was a mighty applause which nearly drowned the voice of the leader down in the low ceilinged room. The latter finished in a short time and we walked out with a stronger desire than ever before to enter the Kingdom of God.

As we were leaving the small room the wish came to us that the greater number of students might have heard this speaker's talk. But classes must go on. Only the few who cared enough to do extra work to make up absences would go to the conference. It seemed like an invitation to the majority to stay away. Certainly different points of view exist. The fact that a whole day is given to a May Fete and no time to a State Religious Conference shows the difference in attitude toward the relative importance of functions.

No, we weren't out last Friday, we were just left out. Somebody had worked too hard, and the Editor—pardon us, His Honor, the Editor—was placed in the trying position of selecting a Lawrentian from the surplus of material. With such cares upon his mind, he was unequal to the task of censoring a Dustpan. And so we received a vacation. But we're back today.

A wild-eyed sophomore dashed into the Libe, and frantically hurried to the table where the president of the fraternity was engrossed in his studies and three girls. "Jack," said the soph, "You've got to hurry back to the house. We're in an awful mess. The cook has left."
 "Left? But what for?"
 "For the evening," said the sophomore as he dashed for the door.

W. Green Bay Is Winner Of Field Meet

Manitowoc High Wins Second Place; Oshkosh Takes Third

West Green Bay High walked off with the second annual Fox River Valley Conference meet held at Whiting Field Saturday, piling up a total of 44½ points, and breaking several records. Manitowoc came second with 26 points and Oshkosh third with 19.

One of the best performances of the afternoon was made by Orleebeke of Sheboygan, who set a record of 5 feet 10½ inches in the high jump, bettering the old record by 7½ inches. Another record was broken by Rasmussen of West Green Bay, who threw the javelin 162 feet 3 inches which is more than 25 feet better than the record held by Hansen of the same school in 1925.

The pole vault went a bit higher than before when Klitzien and McConnel sailed over the bar at 9 feet 9 inches, five inches above the former record.

Radick, West Green Bay, was the outstanding star of the meet. He broke both the shot put and the discus records. He heaved the ball 42 feet 8 inches and the discus 114 feet 9 inches.

Crabbe, West Green Bay, stepped the 100 yard in 10.8 seconds to break that record which was 11 flat.

Sargent, East Green Bay, continued the record breaking when he ran the mile in 5:01.9. This record was formerly held by Hillis, Manitowoc, with a time of 5:02.1.

The low hurdle record also suffered some readjustment by Cole, another West Green Bay man, who hopped them in 28.3 seconds breaking the mark of 30.8 set in 1925. The broad jump kept company with the other new records through the leap of Siewert, Oshkosh, for a distance of 19 feet 9¾ inches.

There were only four out of thirteen events that did not have their mark boosted. Five of these were done by West Green Bay men.

Phi Kaps Take Lead In Baseball League

In what was probably the closest game of the season, the Phi Kappa Alpha baseball aggregation won from the weakened Delta Iota nine Saturday morning 9 to 7. Thus taking the top rung in the inter-fraternity series.

The score was for several frames tied, seven all, but in the sixth inning the Phi Kaps shoved the winning two runs across the plate on errors.

The make-shift D. I. team, five regulars being out-of-town with the varsity at Beloit, lacked the final punch to overcome this lead.

In other games last week-end, the D. I. diamond crew trounced the Delta Sigs, 13 to 4, and the Phi Kaps shut out the Theta Phi team, 10 to 0.

The Beta ball-players put themselves on even terms with the Delta Iota men for second place by beating the Psi Chis 20 to 7. Yesterday afternoon the Theta nine tripped up the Phi Taus 6 to 4.

The standings:

	W.	L.	Pct.
Phi Kappa Alpha	4	0	1.000
Delta Iota	3	1	.750
Beta Sigma Phi	3	1	.750
Theta Phi	2	2	.500
Sigma Phi Epsilon	1	2	.333
Psi Chi Omega	1	3	.250
Delta Sigma Tau	0	3	.000
Phi Kappa Tau	0	3	.000

Another Lawrence Man Enters Politics

Lawrence graduates seem to have a penchant for politics lately. Perhaps the "Boy Mayor" of Washburn, Paul Ungrodt, '23, has started an epidemic of young mayors, for Bill Kiesling, '25, tried his luck with Jefferson voters, and lost the position to L. J. Misteley by just 150 votes.

Mr. Kiesling is the youngest man to run for mayor in the history of Jefferson elections. At present he is traveling for the Copeland and Ryder Shoe Company, located at Jefferson. He was a football star here last year, and is a member of Psi Chi Omega fraternity.

Reverend and Mrs. E. W. Clippinger of Deatur, Illinois, visited with their son, Professor F. W. Clippinger, this last week-end. Reverend Clippinger delivered the morning address at the Presbyterian Church, Sunday, May 16.

Blues Defeat Beloit Team In Track Meet

Denney's Blue track squad ran into its first real competition of the year last Saturday when it journeyed to Beloit and met that school's einder path team. The Lawrence crew, however, showed itself equal to the task by defeating Coach Osgood's men 75 to 56. Dopesters had it that Lawrence would probably chalk up another 100 point victory but the Gold displayed unexpected strength in several events, including the discus, high jump and broad jump and upset prophecies on the meet.

Assistant Coach Fred Trezise accompanied the team to Beloit. The night before the meet, Beloit experienced more tough luck when Dave Butler and Jenks, crack hurdlers, were declared ineligible because of the four year ruling. Both of these men were usually sure point getters.

Captain Stair with 13¼ points again leads all the scorers. This is the second time straight that he has been high point man. Burt Nason and Don Hyde gathered 10¼ points each, sharing second high honors of the day.

The two mile grind proved to be the thriller of the afternoon. At the start of the run two Beloit men took a good lead which they kept adding to, until the final lap when Kingsbury of Lawrence, who has lately distinguished himself by his spectacular finishes, stepped out and cut down the Beloiters' seventy-five yard lead to only a few feet. He was forced, however, to accept a third in the event.

Pretty races were run in both the century and 220 dashes, Stair and Dupke placing first and second respectively in both runs. A fairly strong wind handicapped all the runners and added considerable to their time, which was good in spite of adverse conditions.

Good time was turned in by the relay team composed of the Hydes, Stair and Nason. The distance was covered in one minute thirty-five and eight-tenths seconds. This is two-tenths faster than the state mark but

On The Screen

Life on the campus of one of America's institutions of learning has been immortalized by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer in their production of "Brown of Harvard," coming to the Elite on Thursday and Friday.

The story tells of Tom Brown, a wealthy young egoist, who goes to Harvard to take part in athletics and increase his reputation as a Don Juan. He makes himself the idol of a group of boys, especially of Doolittle, his roommate. The story takes him through two years of college, and an affair with the daughter of Professor Abbott.

William Haines notably advances his popularity as Brown, and Jack Pickford plays the pathetic Doolittle.

Mary Brian plays Mary, the daughter of Professor Abbott. Francis X. Bushman Jr., Mary Alden, David Torrence, Edward Connelly, Guinn Williams and Ernest Gillen complete the cast.
