

New Features Arranged For 1927 Reunion

Longer Parade Planned; Bigger Prizes To Be Offered By Committee

Public awarding of prizes, a longer parade and bigger prizes are a few of the new features which will make the 1927 Homecoming on October 28 and 29 the greatest in Lawrence's history.

The prizes selected by the committee are a large cup for the best decorated fraternity house, a cup for the best decorated dormitory, a cup for the best float entered in the parade by a fraternity, a cup for the best float entered by a sorority, and a banner for the best float entered by any campus organization other than a fraternity or a sorority.

Award Prizes at Dance

Up until this year the awarding of prizes has been made unofficially and the winners were not known definitely until announced in the Lawrentian. This year the four cups and banner will be awarded the winners at eleven o'clock at the Homecoming dance in the armory.

Judging of the fraternity house decorations will begin at five o'clock on Friday afternoon.

In addition to having more floats in the parade this year a longer line of march along College Avenue has been planned.

Appleton merchants have agreed to lend full support to the Homecoming celebration and will display flags and appropriate window decorations.

E. R. Kelsey Talks To Students At Chapel

"All the money and prestige in the world won't get you anywhere if education has not given you a character," said E. R. Kelsey in his talk at convocation on Wednesday on the "Value of Education from the Standpoint of Business". "We do not appreciate college days until they are gone, and while we are here we do not realize the sacrifices that are being made for us by our teachers and our parents."

"Teachers give up their lives to put into their students some of the sterling attributes of character," the speaker said, "and parents endure unlimited sacrifice that their children may have an education."

Mr. Kelsey pointed out that "business is now demanding the educated person, and that according to statistics, a college man makes one third more than the uneducated man, because his education has taught him to think."

"The college man gains a better appreciation of the cultural values of life and he knows how to apply himself," concluded Mr. Kelsey.

News Book Published By Former Instructor

"Getting and Writing News", a journalistic commentary, has recently been published by Dix Harwood, formerly an instructor in English and journalism at Lawrence.

A recent review of the book says, "Getting and Writing News" is a text for elementary courses in journalism. The author has taught journalism, and also writes from an actual experience with small city newspapers. In this book he provides the student with the specific information that every young reporter must have. A newspaper style book, terms of the newspaper and types of stories are discussed with unusual attention."

Harry Sisson, '26, and George Landon, '26, were guests of Delta Iota Tuesday.

Local Club Affiliates With New York Group

The affiliation of the local Spanish club with the Institute de las Espanas, an organization of New York city founded in 1920, was decided at a meeting of the group, Tuesday evening, October 18. The purpose of the organization is the furtherance of study in Spanish, Portuguese, Hispano and American culture.

At the same meeting, Edgar Koch, '30, was elected president of the Lawrence group, Dorothy Miller, '30, was chosen vice-president, and Rebecca Quam, '29, treasurer.

After the business meeting, Florence Olbert read a paper on the "Spanish Heritage in America", and Ruby Brown read an essay on "Spain's Foremost Scientist."

Miss Mueller Makes Successful Debut In Chapel On Tuesday

Contralto Gives Four Groups of Songs at Initial Public Appearance in Appleton

By Elsa Grimmer

Possessing a rich, full, and powerful voice coupled with a charmingly informal and gracious manner on the stage, Miss Helen Mueller, contralto, a voice teacher at the conservatory, made a most successful debut at Lawrence chapel, Tuesday evening. A large crowd was present at her initial public appearance in this city.

Her program, which consisted of four groups of songs, Italian, German, French, and English, well displayed the singer's versatility and musicianship. Having perfection of technique, unusual breath control, and truthfulness of tone, she sang both brilliant and simple melodies with equal skill.

The Program

Outstanding numbers of Miss Mueller's program were Mrs. Beach's "Ah, Love, But a Day", Faure's "Nocturne", "L'Heure Exquise" by Poldowski, "Heimweh" by Wolf, and Bononcini's "Deh piu a me non Vascondete". The latter song was one of melody in which she displayed the singing and tonal quality of her voice. Poldowski's "L'Heure Exquise" was well presented, the transition from full voice to half tone being skillfully effected. "My Ain Country" by Lemon was well received.

The program was made unusually interesting by short sketches and descriptions with which the singer preceded some of her selections.

Miss Mueller was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Nettie Steinger Fullinwider.

Neeah Pastor Speaks At Chapel on Tuesday

Taking as his subject "The Other Fellow", the Rev. T. J. Reykald, pastor of the Methodist church at Neeah, addressed convocation Tuesday.

"Let us try to make this our motto: not self but others," was the thought which Mr. Reykald emphasized. "A fellow wrapped up in himself makes a pretty small package," he declared.

Developing this theme, he pointed out that one of the purposes of college life is to extend one's horizon and make one think more of other people. He spoke of H. G. Wells' list of the six greatest men in history and emphasized the fact that these were the men who did not get but gave.

"We have a debt to the other fellow," he concluded. "The fellow who thinks only of himself is never happy."

William Tubbs, ex-'28, was a guest of Delta Sigma Tau Tuesday. Mr. Tubbs is now attending the University of Wisconsin.

Staff Of '29 Viking Ariel Is Announced

Nearly One Hundred Students Tried Out For Year-book Positions

After an unusually long and intensive try-out period which lasted four weeks and during which ninety-seven students submitted material the following staff selections are announced for "The Viking Ariel" of 1929 by Art Mueller, editor-in-chief of this year's publication.

Art—Bernita Danielson, '29, editor, Norma Balgie, '30, Jack Willem, '31, Cuthbert Ryan, '31, and Dorothy Daiecy, '30.

Senior Class—Jean Jackson, '28, editor, Doris Call, '28, and Bernice Case, '29.

A second tryout period which will extend for another week is to be held to give another chance to those who have not had enough opportunity to show their ability.

Expect $600 From Annual 'Y. W.' Drive

Ormsby Pledges Largest Total With $140; $99 From Sage

Six hundred dollars will be the approximate total sum netted by the Y.W.C.A. financial campaign, which began October 5, according to Marjorie Lockard, '29, Y.W.C.A. treasurer. Of this sum three hundred and thirty dollars has already been paid, one hundred dollars has been promised by November 1, and the pledging of a number of girls who have not been approached is expected to swell the sum to almost six hundred dollars.

Ormsby Pledges Most

The largest amount has been pledged by Ormsby, which has already paid $140.25. Ninety-nine dollars have been collected from Russell-Sage, forty-six dollars and fifty cents from Peabody, thirty-three dollars and fifty cents from town girls, six dollars from Smith, and four dollars from Sage cottage.

Those assisting in the campaign and to whom pledges may be paid are: Miriam Russell, '29, town; Betty Wiley, '31, and Bernita Danielson, '29, Peabody; Verel Knaup, '28, Mary Classon, Mary Treat, and H. Knies, all '31, Ormsby; Anna Marie Perschbacher, '29, Ellen Shuart, '30, Helen Bergman, '30, Katherine Hubbard, '30, Ruth Ann Linn, '29, Marie Buritz, '29, Sage; Ernestine Johnson, '30, Smith house; and Edith Lees, '28, Russell-Sage cottage.

Dr. Wriston To Attend Oberlin Inauguration

President Henry M. Wriston will attend the inauguration of Ernest Hatch Wilken as president of Oberlin college, Oberlin, Ohio, this weekend. Dr. Wilken was former dean at Chicago university.

The inauguration program includes a special service of worship Sunday afternoon, the academic procession and official inauguration Monday morning, and the president's reception, Monday evening.

Dr. Wriston will also attend the Lake Forest-Lawrence game at Chicago, Saturday.

German Club Joins National Federation

The Lawrence college German club has been admitted to membership in the National Federation of Collegiate German Clubs, a national organization of some repute.

This federation of clubs will serve as a clearing house for all lectures, books, plays, news of the day, and educational films concerning German events and will better acquaint the student of this language with vital facts about present day Germany.

At the annual convention of this body, which is to be held in December of this year, each club will present a report of the year's planned activities, thus affording an exchange of ideas. One faculty member from the department of German will represent the Lawrence club at this meeting.

One feature of the outlined program of the Lawrence club for this year is the presenting of the educational films, "A Rhine trip from Diseldorf to Mainz" and "Bedin", have recently been received and will be shown at the Appleton Vocational school on November 7, for the benefit of both students and towns people. Dr. Louis C. Baker, of the department of modern languages, will lecture at this time.

Florence Bennett And Douglas Hyde Survive Elections

Final Elections Defeat Upham and MacInnis By Slight Majority

Leading by small majorities, Florence Bennett, '28, Wisconsin Rapids, and Douglas Hyde, '28, Appleton, were elected secretary and treasurer respectively of the All-college club over their opponents, Helen Upham, '29, Marshfield, and Bruce MacInnis, '28, Milwaukee. The election which was held yesterday morning at convocation. The votes cast were: Bennett, 280, Upham, 255, for secretary; and Hyde, 279, MacInnis, 257, for treasurer.

An election of All-college club officers at this time of the year was necessitated by the failure to return to college of Weltha Brown, ex-'28, secretary-elect, and Harry Lowry, ex-'29, treasurer-elect.

Ten nominees for these two offices were on the ballot slip of the primary election which was held at convocation last Friday. Of these, the two nominees for each office having the highest number of votes remained in the race to the last.

Barnes Named As Head Of Brokaw Hall Group

Charles Barnes, '31, Rockford, Ill., was elected president and Charles Vedder, '31, Marshfield, secretary-treasurer of the Brokaw Council at its first meeting Thursday night.

Plans were made to continue the social program instituted last year, and consequently three dances and one dinner-dance will be given at the hall during the year.

The Council re-adopted the simple disciplinary rules that were used last year.

Plays In Chapel

Miss Viola Buntrock, instructor in piano at the conservatory of music, presented two selections at convocation on Thursday. They were "Nuptials", by Liszt, and Gohnami's "Rhapsody Number 4." As an encore, Miss Buntrock played "The Chase" also by Liszt.

Mr. and Mrs. Leverenz and Mr. and Mrs. Lowe, Sheboygan, spent Sunday at the Delta Sigma Tau house.

Lawrence and Lake Forest Face Battle

Vikings Hope to Chalk Up Their Second Conference Win

With morale greatly improved as a result of the Northwestern victory last week, the Vikings travel afield again this week-end to meet Lake Forest's Red Devils at Lake Forest, on Saturday.

The squad has been doing double duty all week against Lake Forest formations and the players hope to bring home their second "Little Five" victory of the current campaign. Coach Catlin has been driving his men hard on defense against Lake Forest's passing and running attack, and has also been developing a few tricks of his own in the aerial line.

Hunter, whose knee was injured in the Northwestern game last week, is still hobbling along the sidelines, but Humphrey, who filled his position Saturday, showed up well, and will no doubt start in his place. Otherwise the squad is free of injuries and will put up its strongest lineup on the field tomorrow.

Light Team

According to reports from the Illinois school, this year's Red Devils are light, but exceptionally fast, with a whirlwind passing attack and a strong kicking department. The line averages 160 pounds and the backfield 154. The record of the southerners is very similar to the one they boasted last year when they met Lawrence, namely that they had not as yet been scored upon. In their opening game this year they beat Hillsdale college of Michigan, 12 to 0, and followed this with a 6 to 0 victory over the Chicago "Y" college. Last Saturday they played Ripon to a scoreless tie.

The star of the Lake Forest backfield is one "Tilly" Martin, a triple threat man who does all the punting, and specializes in passes from that formation. Martin won the "Y" college game with a spectacular 83 yard run in the last three minutes of play. Burk, a field goal kicker, holds down the other half, with McCall, a shifty man at running the ends, at fullback. Stang, 137 pound gamecock, and Perzaco, a freshman, alternate at quarterback.

Lake Forest Lineup

Hernly and Kylla take turns at right end, while Rostowski handles the other extremity. Squiers and Hagerman, both sophomores, fill the tackle berths, and Captain Bjorklund and England play at guard positions. These latter are the two best men in the line. At center, both Ferner and Mayer are battling for the permanent berth with little to choose between them. As is the case with the Vikings, lack of reserve material is the chief concern of the Red Devils.

Probable Lawrence lineup: St. Mitchell, L.; Krohn, L.; Ehlert, L.; Schauer, C.; Voeks, R.; Ott (C), R.; Jessup, R.; MacInnis qb.; Barfell, L.H.B.; Humphrey, F.B.; Brusat, R.H.B.

Sunset Club Initiates Fourteen New Members

Initiation services for fourteen new members of Sunset players were conducted at Hamar house Wednesday evening. The initiates were Ferne Warsinski, '28, Bernice Kiegan, '29, Eleanor Lea, '30, and Rubie Diebert, Margaret Heckle, Elsie Stevens, Helena Holset and Mary Classon, all '31; George Krause, '29, and William Meyer, Jack Willem, George Beckley, Dan Hopkinson, and Henry Stowe, all '31.

Following the initiation services a brief business meeting of the club members was held.

Segregation of Frosh To Be Feature of Parade

The chaff shall be separated from the wheat, the water shall be removed from the milk, the dross divorced from the gold. In other words, no longer shall the frosh adulterate the Homecoming parade with their sprinkled presence but shall make a smooth green blot in the august company.

Humbly they will tread the concrete, con student and freshman composition artist, town girl and dormitory boy, linked together by a common color, bowed by the weight of the same authority, that the populace and alumni may better inspect the campus' pride and hope for the future.

WITNESS YE THIS EDICT:

WHEREAS, Homecoming being the time when loyal and venerable alumni return to their Alma Mater to view with critical eyes the worth of the students therein;

WHEREAS, the Freshman Class being the youngest and most lowly of this group, the neophytes in the pursuit of learning;

WHEREAS, it seems necessary and proper that the aforementioned Freshman Class should acknowledge their humble position before the high and worthy graduates;

THE STUDENT SENATE OF LAWRENCE COLLEGE hereby proclaims that the Freshman Class of this institution shall march in a body in the Homecoming Parade, Saturday morning, October 29.

MOREOVER, the Student Senate proclaims that any member of said class who is observed to be not in the parade shall be called before that august body to receive merited punishment.

MOREOVER, be it added that if the Freshman Class is witnessed to march 100% strong, the Student Senate will consider taking measures to sanction the removal of the Green one week before the accustomed time.

A NEW TRADITION

Another Lawrence tradition has been given its starting impetus with the announcement that all freshmen will march together in the homecoming parade next Saturday morning. The movement, which comes from the freshman class itself, has a summary alternative—those who violate the decree will be summoned before the student senate for immediate consideration. On the other hand, prompt and willing enforcement of the ruling may result, so says the august body, in the removal of the "green" one week prior to its regular time.

With the frosh marching en masse in the reunion parade, a boost for class spirit should be realized. The class of '31 has been accused of lacking a certain quality of spirit which should be displayed by a group of yearlings, fresh from high school and soda parlors. The grouping of all members of the class in the parade may result in a better intra-class feeling of cooperation, providing, of course, all the yearlings respond to the decree.

Success this year means a tradition for future years.

CREEPING UP

"Just around the corner" are the six weeks' examinations, and the freshmen, unexperienced in the periodical mill, are emulating the worried and frightened examples of the upperclassmen, most of whom are used to assuming a nervous attitude around "exam" time.

The freshmen have nothing to be afraid of, providing they are not placing too much trust in that ancient collegiate habit of cramming. Regular attendance at class, plus a reasonable amount of studying, plus the amount of brains which a high school graduate is credited with possessing, equal a decent preparation for a fair examination, and the frosh, or the upperclassmen for that matter, need have no fear.

It is the delaying of a moderate amount of studying until the wee sma' hours before the exam period that often spells downfall for the inexperienced freshman. No one expects him to ruin his health or spoil his eyesight at his books, but the process of cramming often involves considerable last minute strain and worry which can easily be avoided.

OVER-RIPENED WISDOM

The whole world has it on the authority of a Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, said to be an educator and health authority, that "one dollar expended at Hanover, a small college in Indiana, gives as much culture as five at Harvard. As a graduate of both institutions I can truly make this statement." Harvard, so far as is known, has not offered Dr. Wiley a refund.

The doctor sees the big university as the dangerous seat of disbelief in God and government. At the same Hanover college, which the doctor lauds so highly, there last year took place a student revolt against the university administration—a revolution founded on disbelief in government—in the form of a strike directed against a ruling prohibiting dates after 6 o'clock. The students won this fight against morality, evidently unappreciative of the advantages of the small college and in keeping with the example of the large institutions.

Dope Bucket May Be Given Jar By Pigskin Games This Week-end

Lawrence and Lake Forest Slated To Mix; Knox Meets Beloit; Ripon vs. Cornell

With leading college eleven throughout the country meeting the test of important opponents, the fourth week of the current football season finds the pigskin world in the midst of its campaign. Four Big Ten games, one important intersectional encounter, and several other big games are on tap for Saturday, with prospects bright for another swift kick at the dope bucket.

In Little Five

In the "Little Five" conference, Lawrence travels to Illinois to meet Lake Forest in the second league game for both of these schools. Knox and Beloit, and Cornell and Ripon clash in Midwest conference battles.

Eight teams of the Western circuit fight it out in the second heavy week of play on the Big Ten schedule. Purdue travels to Wisconsin to meet the Badgers, Illinois invades the den of Northwestern's Wildcats at Evanston, Ohio State is entertained by the Wolverines at Ann Arbor, and Minnesota plays host to Iowa. The important intersectional game of the day brings Pennsylvania to the Windy City to battle the Maroons. Important games in the east are headed by Yale and the Army, who stage their annual tussle, Dartmouth and Harvard in another grudge battle, and Princeton and Cornell. The latter schools renew relations after a lapse of nearly twenty-five years.

Viking Harriers To Meet Marquette

The undefeated Lawrence cross-country team leaves today for Milwaukee, where it will meet Marquette's harriers this afternoon in their third run of the season.

Coach Denny's proteges have romped over Oshkosh and Milwaukee normals so far this season, and they loom as real competition for the Cream City men. Pfeieger, of Marquette, stands out as the biggest obstacle in the way of a Viking victory, as he showed real stuff against Northwestern of Naperville, when Marquette outran that team.

Jesse, Menning, Mueller, and Wolf are slated to leave, and a fifth man will also be picked before the journey. Either St. Clair, Pinkerton, or Sheurman will be selected.

Announce Prizes For One Act Play Contest

The Little Theater of Duluth, Minnesota, has announced a one-act play contest to end February 1, 1928. Three prizes of $50, $30, and $20 will be awarded, the latter two being reserved for residents of Minnesota, Duluth, and Superior.

The plays must be type-written and signed by a pen name. The Little Theater also reserves the right to produce any of the winning plays for a period of one week.

Twelve New Books Are Available At Library

Twelve of the latest books published have been purchased by the English club and have been placed on the rental shelf in the library the latter part of this week.

The fiction books purchased are: "Kitty", by Warwick Deering; "The Mad Carews", by Martha Ostens; "A Good Woman", by Louis Bromfield; "Silent Storms", by Ernest Foote; "The Nuptials of Corbal", by Rafael Sabatini; "Adam and Eve", by John Erskine, and "Quest of Youth", by Jeffery Farnol.

Among the non-fiction books are "The Locomotive God" (autobiography) by William E. Leonard; "The Glorious Adventure", by Richard Haliburton; "Ballads for Sale (her last volume) by Amy Lowell; "We", by Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh; and "Mother of India", by Katherine Mayo.

Eleanor Lea, '29, attended the Wisconsin-Michigan game at Madison.

Thetas, Sig Eps Win Week's Matches

The Sigmas and Theta Fhis emerged victorious from the semi-final round of the interfraternity tennis tournament Tuesday. The final match between these two teams should be a hotly contested one, as both of them displayed flashy tennis.

The D.I.'s were the opponents of Robson and Klausner of the Sigmas. Barnes and Marceau, playing for D.I., lost two sets in a row, 6-3 and 6-4. The Sigmas had to work for their points, and for a while in the second set the D.I. chances rose considerably. The rally ceased after four games, however, and the set was won on straight games from the score of 4-3. The Phi Taus gave the Thetas a jolt by taking the first set, 6-4. Berzinski and Krause were the Phi Tau entries against Kemmel and Catlin of Theta Phi. The latter team came back with a rush and took two sets with comparative ease. The scores were 6-4, and 6-4.

Intra-Mural Managerial Staff Positions Open

All men who are candidates for the managership of intra-mural sports should hand in their names at the gym office before Tuesday noon, October 25, it was announced Wednesday.

Intra-mural sports managers are in charge of all campus and interfraternity events. Don Gebhardt is senior representative this year, and one junior, sophomore and freshman will be chosen.

Psychopathic Cases? No, Merely Class In Art Running Wild

Though they don't wear smocks, long hair, and flowing ties, nevertheless artists stalk abroad. They lie in wait to inspect the color scheme which the gods and your parents gave you, they peer from ambush to determine whether or not your nose divides your face in equal halves. They plant themselves in front of the chapel windows and make remarks to little note-books about the stained glass; they stare at Main hall, noting every detail of that phenomenon until even the painters get self-conscious.

Beware! When they gaze at you rapidly don't respond like an icicle at sunny high noon; don't call a psychopathist or Professor Griffiths. The scrutiny is for business, not pleasure. The art class is doing its assignments, and even you may take art some day.

Editor, The Lawrentian, Appleton, Wis.

Dear Editor:

Why has the Homecoming date been changed from the Ripon game as in other years to the Beloit game this year? The traditional Ripon-Lawrence rivalry has had much to do with the success of previous homecomings and I can't help but believe that many of the alumni will be disappointed by this change.

Is it because Ripon has a stronger team and you fear defeat, while Beloit with a weaker team is more likely to lose. That is a poor reason, indeed, and I am sure the alumni would rather see the team glorious in defeat by Ripon than in a drab victory over Beloit.

Or is it from fear of inclement weather? The difference of a week in the two dates does not furnish very good grounds for a reason of this sort.

The comment of other alumni, students and faculty members on this subject would be interesting. It has been customary to have Ripon play the Homecoming game in the years when the Crimson journeys to Appleton and there really isn't any very good reason for changing it, as Ripon is the logical homecoming opponent because of the intense rivalry which has always existed between the two schools and has become more sportsmanlike with each succeeding year!

Again, why the change?

Sincerely yours,

Ray Westphal, '25.

Haliburton Speaks At Green Bay Wednesday

"May you never be steady men! May you never be steady women! Glory in the restless imagination—it is the steady people who run everything, who make things safe, who are necessary, to be sure; but it is the restless people who furnish the wine, the amusement, the originality of life," said Mr. Richard Haliburton, young author of "The Royal Road to Romance" and "The Glorious Adventure," in his speech before a large audience at the Columbus club at Green Bay Wednesday evening.

Y.W.C.A. Candle Light Service Well Attended

Seventy-five girls attended the Y.W.C.A. Candle light services in recognition of new members, which was held at seven o'clock Thursday night in the sub-chapel. Miriam Russell, '29, was in charge of the meeting.

A speech by Miss Marguerite Woodworth and several musical numbers completed the program.

Numerical Club Meeting

The first Numerical Club meeting of the year will be held Friday night after the Frolic in Miss Wisner's office. All members must be present or be excused by either Miss Wisner or Esther Ziegler.

Maxine Helmer is doing Lyceum work in the east, as accompanist for a violinist and a soloist.

Mr. Norman Knutson attended the Wisconsin-Michigan game Saturday.

Lost and Found

Several articles, including a woman's umbrella, a fountain pen, a pair of shell-rimmed glasses, three or four books and note-books and a man's hat, have either been lost or left at the college library. These things will be returned to their owners when called for at the desk.

Bernice Porterfield, '26, and Virginia Edison, both of Oshkosh, spent Saturday here.
