He then pointed out the railroad ties bordering Sheppards drive as being something he remembered. He then walked down Lake Rd. (east) crossing the street to the south. He pointed out by the driveway bordering Met. Park to the west as the one he believed he ran down into the field which borders Lake Rd in Met. Park on the south. He then indicated that he went through the field down to the creek, at this point he became confused as to where he was, and requested that we continue south to the first road then go west, Wolf Rd. Going west on Wolf Rd. he asked to stop at the second culvert west of the Park entrance, he got out looked about and stated he could not say, came back to first culvert where he got out and looked and again said he couldn't be sure. He requested that we return to the Park to the creek, where we stopped and he looked around, he said he couldn't be sure. He returned to the station.

7:00 P.M. Started to interrogate subject. 10:00 P.M. finished interrogation
