Letter from a New York Supporter to John Zaccaro

Geraldine Ferraro

John Zaccaro

New York, New York   10021

12 July 1984

Dear John:

We've attempted many times to write to you and Gerry but thought that might be too sophomoric and saccharin. However, today's announcement pushed this over the brink!

You and Gerry will be inundated with so much mail you'll never get to it and, quite possibly, this will be among those letters. However, I'm taking a chance in directing it to you for obvious reasons.

We're pleased for both of you, don't envy the next several months and will do everything we can to contribute to a positive result. We now have four registered voters and you can be certain our votes will go your way.

Irene and I are pleased with Gerry's success and, quite frankly, to have known both of you as the kids were chasing around under the sun. Our very best to both of you.

                              Sincerely,

Mr. John Zaccaro
