My dear Sister Geraldine,

I was extremely happy to see your ever smiling photo with your dear ones, since I am also in the field of women & children welfare for over two decades.

I wish you all the best and pray you win the forthcoming election as all over the world women are participating in politics besides welfare of humanity, and they need to come out as there is none like mother/women who understands the burning problem of youth and downtrodden women who lends assistance on them for dowry, poverty etc.

I will be very happy to receive from you an autograph family photo of yours for my self as I have collected many including Zubin Mehta who is from the same community like me, Parsee Zoroastrian.

My son [redacted] who has finished his double graduation in Bombay University Bachelor of Commerce, and Master of management Service i.e. M. B.A, has secured his admission in one of your prestigious University Rutgers to do his Ph.D specialising in Finance, at [redacted], Newark, New Jersey 07102.

I will be happy if any of your children meet him or contact him to make him feel at home, thus

My only concern is that he should feel at home in your friendly country specially with you as I can make out from your other photo I saw in the press & preserved it.

Hope you will spare a moment to write to your sister from India.

With warm Regards to all
Yours sincerely,
