Dear Gerry:

I had a wonderful TV interview with Jean Stapleton (of "All in the Family") this week and wanted to relate her comments in praise of your work.

Jean was in Austria when she saw the Herald Tribune headlines announcing your nomination and she promptly took off dancing on the cobblestones of downtown Vienna to celebrate! She was ecstatic with the news. Actually, this fits perfectly with what Jean calls a "new chapter in life" as she begins her musical debute in "Candide" with the Baltimore Opera Company next month.

I wanted to share this with you because Jean was so effusive about your nomination as Vice President. You will be pleased to know that thousands of Bay Area S.F. residents will also hear this story when the TV program is aired at the end of the month.

My best,

Congresswoman Geraldine Ferraro
