CAMPUS LIFE

Registration

This year's registration was a repetition of former years in terms of sore feet, tired bodies, disappointment, strained minds and long waiting lines as we tried to complete our first semester schedules with the help of our harried advisors. Even with the help of pre-registration, many sad students, especially freshmen, were faced with the problem of being closed out of classes and having to pick out a new course to fill the gap. However, registration was not all bad as we so often think. It was a good chance to meet new students and faculty members, as well as being able to see old friends again after the long summer vacation.

Homecoming

Queen Connie VanPeursesem reigned over this year's Homecoming festivities entitled "All Things Must Pass". Her attendants were Rena Searl, Anna Kruen, Debbie VanAartsen, and Doris Mellema. Following the coronation of Queen Connie on Thursday night, NW students had the pleasure of enjoying their first variety show. The winning entry was a mixture of motley clad jug and bottle players from Hemstra Hall whose feature number was "The Mockingbird Song". On the other hand, Northwestern students, as well as people from the community had the pleasure of attending the Homecoming play "Star Spangled Girl". Fern Smith Hall's "Fern's First Floor Farceical Funeral Facilities" helped the dorm win first prize in decoration competition. The Red Raiders celebrated their victory over Midland at the Homecoming dance Saturday evening.

SCF Retreats

Rev. Paul Veenstra, pastor of the Chula Vista Christian Reformed Church, was the speaker. His theme was "Christian Freedom" with messages based on Romans 6,7, and 8. His emphasis was on the freedom of the person in Christ. Dr. Granberg brought a campfire message, and a number of faculty also shared in the leadership of some of the group discussions. A new departure was initiated this year by holding the spring "retreat" on campus and converting it to a week-end conference. Rev. Bill Pannell, a Black evangelist from Detroit, Mich., spoke on relating personal Christianity to the action that is demanded of us in the world today. His last session specifically zeroed in on our relationship as Christians to Black Americans.

Consecration Week

"WHAT'S THE BUZZ?" This was Don Van Hoesen's theme as he spoke to us for our 1971 Consecration Week. He talked about our Christian concern in the world today and emphasized that we must stop playing games. Many opportunities were provided for discussion and sharing of Christian ideals at the prayer breakfasts afternoon talks with Don Van Hoesen, daily chapel services, and the co-ed evening discussion groups. The climax of the entire week was the caucus on Thursday evening, emphasizing the need for action following commitment, and the communion service in chapel on Friday.

This year, more than any other, the week brought strong positive and negative reactions. The co-chairmen were pleased that many Northwestern students were brought out of their lethargy and apathy to think about and discuss these vital issues.

Don Van Hoesen came to us from the Reformed Church Ministry to Students at Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Winter Carnival

With a blanket of freshly fallen snow, Northwestern's campus turned into a perfect winter wonderland for the 1972 Winter Carnival. The setting became even more animated when creations of snow sculpture donned our lawns; Fern Smith Hall came through with a prize-winning Snoopy taking a cool sun bath. Deb Thomsen and Gaylord Schelling were crowned as queen and king to reign over the winter festivities. The broom hockey matches with both male and female participants provided several hours of excitement. The weekend was rounded off in a dance with music provided by the "Freedom".

Graduation

One-hundred thirty-one students took part in the final event of their educational career at Northwestern College on May 15, 1972, at the eighty-ninth graduation ceremonies. The commencement address entitled "The Promise of Christian Higher Education" was presented by Dr. Robert T. Sandin, Director of Planning and Professor of Education at the University of Toledo. The degrees were conferred by Dr. Lars Granberg, President, assisted by Dr. Roy Wilbee, Academic Dean, and Harold VanderLaan, Registrar. Summa Cum Laude, the highest degree awarded, was conferred on Ruth Ann Hulstein of Rock Valley.

Chapel and Acappella Choirs

Chapel and Acappella choirs performed extensively on and off campus throughout the school year.

The Chapel choir under the direction of Dr. Vernon Tarrell, gave frequent performances during chapel services and highlighted this season with the presentation of John Stainer's "The Crucifixion".

This year's Christmas Vespers were provided by the Acappella Choir and Chamber Orchestra. Highlighting the service was the performance of Camille Saint-Saens' "Christmas Oratorio, op. 12." for choir, orchestra, and soli.

The 42-voice choir, under the direction of Professor Lawrence Van Wyk, presented a special program as the guest choir at the Northwest Iowa Choral Festival in Cherokee.

This year's Acappella tour took the choir east through Illinois and Indiana to Michigan where they gave a majority of their concerts. Several concerts were given before and after the tour in communities around Orange City, with the home concert in the First Reformed Church on March 19.

On Sunday, April 16, the Northwestern College division of Fine Arts presented the Sioux County Symphony Orchestra and the combined choirs in spring concert, under the direction of Professor Herbert Ritsema. The concert began with several selections by the orchestra. Then the combined choirs and the orchestra presented Franz Schubert's Mass in G. The Mass featured Professor Rodney Jiskoot at the organ, and Connie Aberson, Steve Lenters and Dave DeJongh as vocal soloists.

Every year junior and senior music majors at Northwestern present recitals as a partial fulfillment of their degree. Senior recitals this year were given by Dianne Blom, Fran Beukelman, Dennis Rozeboom, Connie Van Peursem, Roger DeYoung, Leila Wierda, Lowell Ten Clay and Mary Hofland. The juniors presenting recitals were Brenda Rensink, Steve Lenters, Myra De Jong, and Joan Blom.

A new vocal group, the Heritage Singers, were organized on campus this year. Under the direction of Dr. Tarrell they performed at several churches, schools, and civic functions throughout the area.

Concert and Marching Band

The Northwestern home football games were highlighted again this year with several performances by the Northwestern College marching band under the direction of Professor Herbert Ritsema. After the football season ended, the concert band, stage band, and brass choir began work in preparation for their home concert on November 23. This concert which was held in the chapel included a variety of works performed by all three groups. The band took their annual tour April 20-23 presenting concerts in Iowa, Minnesota, and Wisconsin. The repertoire of the band ranged from sacred to secular music with a strong emphasis on the current literature being composed for symphonic bands. The band ended its year by presenting an outdoor concert on May 2 on the lawn by the library.

Choral Readers

Again this year the outstanding and unique Northwestern Choral Readers, under the direction of Dr. Theora England, had a very busy year. The Choral Readers began their major work October 7-9 by providing a program for thousands of people from Reformed Churches all over the country at the Mission Festival '71 in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Then, December 3-4 they gave performances concerning the real meaning of Christmas in several shopping centers in Mankato and Minneapolis, Minnesota. The climax for this year's group came March 3-12. It was during this time that the Readers made appearances in South Dakota, Nebraska, Colorado, Kansas, and Iowa on their annual tour. Their tour program included dramatic interpretations of Biblical passages and works by renowned writers such as Thurber, Sandburg and Longfellow.

Art

Many of the memories of college that stay with us
did not come from classroom situations.
Although these memories
don't necessarily teach us a specific lesson,
we do associate them with times
of personal growth and general fooling around.
The candid section is devoted to helping you recall these times
and maybe see them
as a special part of your life.
