FACULTY AND STAFF

THE PRESIDENT

Dr. Healey took part in many of the various activities in campus. He was always willing to help students with problems and he was always willing to give a speech if asked. Dr. Healey's interaction on this campus proved to the students that he CARES. On behalf of all Longwood students, we would like to THANK YOU for serving our institution with your Leadership, Friendship, and Service.

ENTERTAINMENT

Nikki Giovanni came to Longwood to recite her works. She was a great joy to the entire campus. Currently she is a visiting professor at Virginia Tech.

ENTERTAINMENT

ABOVE: The New York Chamber Soloists, are a unique ensemble of artists who, since 1957, have been performing a rich repertoire of chamber works. The New York Chamber Soloists have been repeatedly engaged to perform in the major concert series throughout the United States, and in most every major Eastern and Western European international music festival. Right: The Richmond Ballet returned to Longwood by popular demand. As Virginia's professional ballet company, the Richmond Ballet is synonymous with the best and most versatile dance expertise in Virginia.

ENTERTAINMENT

A Christmas Carol performed with 25 actors and accompanied with a 4 piece chamber orchestra attracted a large number of students and community. Much of the original Dickens dialogue was maintained as the spirits of Christmas Past, Present, and Future showed Ebenezer Scrooge the way out of a miserly existence to one of generosity and kindness.

Feb. 25-27, 1988 -- 8:00 p.m.

The Longwood Players have worked very hard this academic year to bring quality entertainment to campus. With the help of the Speech/Theater department, they have made their shows a great success. Peter Pan was the first time that Longwood ever had a flying machine on the stage. Grease was the second time that a car has been on stage. With the tremendous efforts and the hard work that has been proven to the campus by the Longwood Players, the students at Longwood College should be very grateful to have these high quality — maybe one day — professional actors.

HOME ECONOMICS

Ellen H. Richards (1842-1911) was one of the first women in America to be granted a degree in Science. She is known as the Founder of Home Economics because she gathered together the isolated facts upon which the science of home economics is built. It was her leadership that resulted in the founding of the American Home Economics Association and she was its first president.

Advisors: Mrs. Marily Osborn,
Mrs. Melinda Fowlkes
Donna Andes, Kathleen
Grooms, Sue Mowbray,
Robin Olmstead, Sonya
Robinson, Brenda Thompson

The Virginian would like to pay a special tribute to the last five Home Economic majors to graduate from Longwood. They extend a special thanks to their advisors for their unending support and encouragement. Congratulations to the Home Economics Department for seventy-nine years of dedication and excellence.

1909-1988

Ideal home life today unhampered by the traditions of the past.

Utilization of all resources of modern science to improve the home life.

Freedom of the home from the dominance of things and their due subordination to ideals.

Simplicity in material surroundings which will most free the spirit for the more important and permanent interests of the home and of society.

CHI

Founded October 15, 1900

CHI is an organization whose essential purpose is to promote and maintain a spirit of cooperation among students in every phase of college life. Its aim is to foster respect for Longwood and loyalty to its academic program and extracurricular activities.

The real evidence of CHI can be seen in the hearts and minds of those who seek its real purpose of constructive support and cooperation.

The banner of CHI is white with the Gothic letters CHI in blue. Beneath the letters is a figure of the Rotunda which exemplifies the true meaning of CHI.

THE VIRGINIAN

BELOW: Cory Taylor

As editor to the 1987-88 Yearbook, I would like to thank everyone who has made this year a success. Patience is one of the many virtues that everyone needs to apprehend. This yearbook would not have been a success had not everyone who donated pictures and took time out to help with on-the-second problems decided not to participate. There are many people that deserve thanks but there are a few who deserve special thanks. They are Beth Camillo, My assistant editor; Melanie Bert, for her extreme dedication to the production of this book, Kim Bunn, for her encouragement and support in rough times; Sue Gallimore, for picking up the pieces in the fall and giving me something to work with; Bonnie Buckner, for the personality and the consciousness for her work; Suzanne Kalligham, Seusan Lord, Kim Bell, Sarah Tetterton, and Corey Taylor for helping with the production and work with the layouts.

A very special thanks goes out to Beth Camillo; she is a hard working and dedicated person who knows how and what to do when there is a problem and I am not available. Also I must not forget YOU the purchaser of the yearbook, because without YOU there would be no book.

Sincerely, Jeff Dingeldein Editor-in-chief

SPECIAL EVENTS

CONVOCAATION

Convocation is Longwood's traditional academic ceremony in which Seniors are recognized at the beginning of the academic year. During the ceremony, the Seniors are capped with decorative hats made by their "little brothers or little sisters" who are close friends. The 1987 convocation was held in Jarman Auditorium on September 3, 1987 at 1:00 pm. There were two speakers at the ceremony. The first was our own Dr. George Healy, acting president of Longwood College. The second was a guest speaker, Anne Morton, a graduate of Longwood. A variety of people attended, including alumni, faculty, and underclassmen. It was an occasion that many Seniors will always remember.

COLOR RUSH

This year's Color Rush was held October 9, 1987 on Wheeler Hall. Color Rush is a paint battle between the green and whites and the red and whites. Green and whites are students that will graduate in' an odd year. Red and whites are those who will graduate in an even year. The clowns were present to generate spirit. Color Rush is like an opening act for Octoberfest. It sets the mood for the upcoming weekend. This year's

DECEMBER GRADUATION

On December 16, 1987, the first December graduation at Longwood was held. The ceremony was designed for those graduating in December to be formally recognized. Before, December graduates were allowed to return and walk with the May graduates. This year the graduation was held in the Gold Room in Lankford Student Union. Many people were there to watch the graduates receive their diplomas.

President, Dr. George Healy speaks at the December graduation.

LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

This year the Longwood Leadership Conference was held at Virginia Beach on February 5-7. Students were eligible to participate through the many different organizations on campus. The conference helped students to generate critical thinking concerning their leadership abilities. The conference also had indepth discussions on the use of alcohol — related activities on campus, as well as techniques to help with publicity, styles, managing time, working with budgets, and creative thinking.

GRADUATION

Graduation is a time of excitement but yet consists of making many decisions. One's life is in his hands! Leaving college consists of losing friends or close contact with the friends, leaving the world of dependency, and of course NO STUDYING.
