Dr. Tom Meuser joined the faculty of the University of New England in September, 2018, and directs the new university-wide Center for Excellence in Aging & Health. Tom is a clinical psychologist and applied gerontologist. His current research focuses on legacy beliefs in advancing age. He is also widely recognized for his work on older driver safety and caregiver grief. Dr. Meuser directed the Gerontology Program at the University of Missouri – St. Louis from 2007-2018. Prior to that, he served as Director of Education for the Knight Alzheimer’s Disease Research Center at Washington University School of Medicine in St. Louis, Missouri (1999-2007). Originally from Connecticut and a graduate of the College of the Holy Cross in Worcester, MA, Tom is thrilled to be back home in New England!
