COMPOSITIONS AND ARRANGEMENTS

FOR VIOLIN AND PIANO

BY

GUSTAV SAENGER

PRESENT themselves as a valuable requisite and desirable necessity of TEACHERS, STUDENTS and SOLOISTS. The following selected list may give an idea of this writer's versatility, not only as a Composer and Arranger of every conceivable style of Violin Music but also as an adapter and translator of important literary works for the Violin.

AN enviable reputation has been gained by this writer through the artistic worth and practical merits of his Violin arrangements for either solo or instructive purposes. Whether designed for players of moderate or advanced accomplishments, these arrangements all bear witness not only to the distinctive aims but also to the undoubted thorough musicianship of their author.

"SPARKLING FANCIES"

Intermezzo de Concerto

GUSTAV SAENGER, Op. 104

Violin
C. Fischer's Edition

Allegretto grazioso.

Copyright 1928 by Carl Fischer New York

THE original compositions and transcriptions of this writer, fitted as they are to the true character and melodic nature of the violin with admirable skill, reveal a musical talent of thorough and absolutely modern tendencies. Artistic musical conception, clever invention, incessant flow of melody, distinctive accompaniments and above all, individual and brilliant setting of the solo parts, all account for the favor with which the work of this American writer has been received by soloists, teachers and students.
