The first system of the score consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a dynamic marking of p. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and a dynamic marking of pp. The lower staff includes the instruction (quasi di lontano) una corda. Below the staves, a diagram shows the piano's action mechanism with a curved line indicating the hammer's path and a vertical line with a circle representing the hammer flange.

The second system continues the piece. The upper staff has a dynamic marking of mf and includes fingering numbers (2, 5, 4, 2, 4, 5, 3, 5, 4) above the notes. The lower staff has a dynamic marking of p and the instruction tre corda. The system concludes with a dynamic marking of pp and the instruction una corda, with the text quasi di lontano written below the staff. A diagram of the piano action mechanism is shown below the staves.

The third system features complex fingering in both hands, with numbers 1 through 5 placed above the notes. The lower staff includes the instruction tre corda and ends with the marking m.d. (mezza destra). Below the staves, a diagram shows the piano action mechanism with a curved line and a vertical line with a circle.

The fourth system shows a cresc. (crescendo) marking in the lower staff. The upper staff continues with notes and fingering numbers. The lower staff concludes with a diagram of the piano action mechanism.
