INTRODUCTION
A LA
MARCH.

The Ar - my is gathering from near and from far, The trum - pet is sound - ing the call for the war; Mc Clel - lan's our lead - er, he's gal - lant and strong, We'll gird on our ar-mor, and be march - ing a-long! March-ing a-long, we are march - ing a-long, Gird on the ar-mor and be march - ing a-long; Me

Clel-lan's our lead-er, he's gal-lant and strong, For God and our country we are march-ing along.

The foe is before us in battle array
 But let us not waver, or turn from the way;
 The Lord is our strength, and the Union's our song,
 With courage and faith, we are marching along.
 Marching along &c.

3.

Our wives and our children we leave in your care,
 We feel you will help them their sorrows to bear;
 'Tis hard thus to part, but we hope 'twont be long,
 We'll keep up our hearts as we're marching along.
 Marching along &c.

We sigh for our country, we mourn for our dead,
 For them now, our last drop of blood we will shed;
 Our cause is the right one—our foe's in the wrong,
 Then gladly we'll sing as we're marching along.
 Marching along &c.

5.

The flag of our country is floating on high,
 We'll stand by that Flag till we conquer or die;
 Me Clellan's our leader, he's gallant and strong,
 We'll gird on our armor, and be marching along.
 Marching along &c.

Gl' - lans our lead - er, he's gal - lant and strong, For God and our country we are march - ing a - long;
