The musical score consists of six systems of piano accompaniment. Each system has a treble and bass staff. The key signature is three flats (B-flat major or D-flat minor). The first three systems feature a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the right hand and a bass line with eighth notes and rests in the left hand. The fourth system introduces triplets in the right hand. The fifth and sixth systems continue with the triplet accompaniment. The piece concludes with a final chord in the right hand.

The musical score consists of six systems of piano accompaniment. Each system has a treble and bass staff. The key signature is three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat). The first five systems feature a complex, rhythmic melody in the treble staff with frequent triplets and sixteenth notes, while the bass staff provides a steady accompaniment. The sixth system shows a change in texture, with the treble staff playing chords and the bass staff playing a rhythmic accompaniment.
