As the sun was slow-ly sink-ing in the gold-en West, A Tho' man-y years have passed, and Moth-er's hair is gray, The lit-tle girl passed to E-ter-ni-ty; — The an-gels car-ried her to Heav-en and love is in her heart as long-a-go; — She of-ten thinks of lit-tle Nell, and placed her with the blest, For she was just as pure as she could be. — The of her hus-band true, He too has gone where Heav-en's wa-ters flow. — Not moth-er's heart was break-ing when her dar-ling said "good - bye," The long a - go the doc - tor said the moth-ers end was near, and it fa - ther's Soul was filled with deep dis - may; _____ And filled her heart with joy in - stead of pain; _____ For she tho' their grief seemed more than they could ev - er, ev - er bear, It knew that she would soon be with her dar-ling lit - tle girl, and those cheered their ach - ing hearts to hear her say; _____ words so sweet came back to her a - gain; _____

With feeling

I'm go - ing where the flow - ers al - ways bloom mam-ma I'm go - ing where the rob - ins al - ways sing; Up there, mam-ma its al - ways peace and com - fort, And there, they say, they have E - ter - nal Spring, Don't weep Mam-ma, be - cause I soon shall leave you, Don't sigh, I'll not go long from you to stay _____ For Je - sus knows Mam-ma, how much I love you, And he will bring you up to me some day. _____
