Moderato
marc.

f

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand plays a series of chords and eighth notes, while the left hand provides a steady bass line with eighth notes. The tempo is marked 'Moderato' with a 'marcato' (marc.) instruction.

Out in the gold-en west, So goes the sto-ry,
When eve-ning sun's at rest, And stars grow bright-er

mf p spirito

The first system shows the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line is on a single staff, and the piano accompaniment is on two staves. The piano part includes dynamic markings of mf and p spirito.

There lived a cat-tle king A-lone in his glo-ry, Un-til a maid-en fair
Out in the gold-en west Two hearts are light-er, He won the maid-en fair

The second system continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line is on a single staff, and the piano accompaniment is on two staves.

"I Wish I Had a Girl"

THE GREAT
$10,000
SONG

THIS IS THE WAY THE CHORUS BEGINS:

CHORUS Not too fast

Gee, — I wish that I had a girl like the oth-er fel lows had. —

Always aiming to have the best there is, and at all times, for the lovers of popular music, we have just purchased, from the original publishers, the greatest song written in years—and it cost us an even $10,000 for the copyright. Once before and only once has there been anything bordering on such an amount paid for a musical work, and that was "Hiawatha"—the greatest hit on record. We paid the $10,000 for "HIAWATHA"—and we paid the $10,000 for "I Wish I Had a Girl"

THIS IS THE WAY THE CHORUS ENDS:

And "I'm lone-some, aw-ful lone-some." Gee, I wish I had a girl. —

Every measure of the song is just as bright, tuneful and charming as the excerpts found above. Ten Thousand Dollars seems a fabulous price to pay for a song, but "I Wish I Had a Girl" is worth every cent of it. Copies can be had at all music dealers, or by sending direct to us. "You want 'popular' music—we supply the want." Write for Illustrated Catalogue—free.
