I of - times sit and think a - bout the days gone by - When I oft - en hear folks speak - ing of a cu - pids dart - If we would roam the mead-ows green, just you and I I have known much sor - row and that there were not a cu - pids dart, there'd be no bro - ken heart. Sor - row fol - lows laugh - ter and the sor - row has caused pain - I wish the hands up - on the clock, would turn back once a - gain. heart must bear the aches - But we would not be hu - man if - we did not make mis - takes.

CHORUS

If I could live my life but once a - gain dear, How dif - f'rent things would be for you and me. I know that I did wrong, I've known it all a - long, It seems that bro - ken hearts were meant to be. You gave me all you had I know you loved me, I made your path a dark and drear - y lane I know I'd prove to you, That I real - ly could be true, If I could live my life but once a - gain.
