SONGS THAT GRIP THE HEART

"You Can't go Wrong with any Feist Song"

"Ireland Must Be Heaven For My Mother Came From There"

IRELAND, so famed in song and story, has a new-crown for her brow. "Ireland must be Heaven for My Mother Came From There" is the new and wonderful song—the hit of years—which all lovers of heart-songs must sing. It's a song of three wonderful themes: Angel, Mother and Ireland. It's a ballad with a melody so captivating and lovely you can't let it alone. The whole country is singing "Ireland Must Be Heaven."

"The Sweetest Melody of All"

Want a song that gets to your heart strings and stays there? THIS is that song. What is "the sweetest melody of all?" Rather than "opera grand or big brass band," isn't it the girlish chatter or boyish babble of little darling lispings "Mama" or "Papa?" Right? Then you will love this song. It's easy to sing. Sing it once you will want to sing it a thousand times. It's a favorite with Emma Carus and other footlight stars. Get your copy today.

REFRAIN By McCarthy, Johnson and Fischer

Ireland must be Heaven, for an angel came from there, I never knew a living soul, as half as sweet or fair, For her eyes are like the star-light, and the white clouds match her hair, Sure, Ireland must be Heaven, for my mother came from there.

CHORUS By Clarke and Monaco

I love to hear the bugle call, For any tune I'm bound to fall, But to hear a little baby calling you pa - pa, ma - ma, That's the sweetest mel - o - dy of all.
