We were sit - ting in an ar - bor, in the balm - y month of June, Midst the When days and weeks and months had flown, our meet - ing came by chance, And per - fume of the ro - ses in full bloom. I told her how I loved her, then I in her eyes ap - pear'd an an - xious glance. She asked if I was wedded and seemed asked her to be mine, She answered quite se - rene - ly Yes, "Some - - time" That pleas'd at my re - ply When I said "I've wait - ed for Sometime" to fly. We are

If I were a violet.

Words and Music by Geo. Howland Cox, Jr.

CHORUS.

Vio - lets in the valley, all for you sweet one,

All the flow'rs are calling you to come, come, come.

If I were a violet with the flow'rs did dwell,

I would beg you come and live with-in my dell.
