The Kaiser Will "Strafe" It

NO sir—it won't tickle the Kaiser. But maybe that's why it's sweeping the good old U. S. A. with its wonderful melody and inspiring words. Geo. W. Meyer has put the real spirit of 1918 into his peppy military music—and Howard Johnson has written the words that will linger in the memory of every American when the Rhine is crossed and the guns are stacked. Get it—it will get you.

Just Like Washington Crossed The Delaware General Pershing Will Cross The Rhine

CHORUS
Just like Washington—crossed the Delaware—
Pershing cross the Rhine—
At the Darktown Stutter's Ball
Where do we go from here—
Delia—

It Will Tease You Till It Gets You

A REAL "kiss and let 'em make up" song—with a teasing melody and tantalizing words. You can't help but hum it, sing it, or whistle it once you've heard it. Full of life and spirit—the kind of song you like to hear once, twice, and a hundred times. True love doesn't run smooth but "I'm Sorry I Made You Cry" is the smoothest love song in years. Words and music by N. J. Ches.

I'm Sorry I Made You Cry

CHORUS
I'm sorry, baby, I'm sorry, baby, I'm sorry,
I made you cry—
I made you cry—
I made you cry—
I made you cry—

A Hit That Hits Home

OUT of Belgium, for four years a land of desolation has grown Benoit's, Levenson's and Gorton's "My Belgian Rose"—a beautiful song that reaches the heart. It's a real, undeniable appeal that makes a real impression—you can't get away from its captivating melody and wonderful words. "And the 'hey's' take all your breathing and don't you'll make an American beauty of you" are two of the lines you'll love in this song. Learn it now.

My Belgian Rose

CHORUS
Belgian Rose, my darling, Belgian Rose, for every hour of my life, you'll love a part of which to be glad I've seen out here in war, for you will know—give, and my days' taken all your smile and love, will make an A-m-e-r-i-c-a-n beauty of you, and you will love to see you—
