Moderato

Piano

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand starts with a series of chords and eighth notes, marked with a forte (f) dynamic. The left hand provides a steady bass line with eighth notes. The piece concludes with a piano (p) dynamic marking.

There have been songs of moth - ers And songs of sweet-hearts, too —
As you go through life's jour - ney You of - ten need a friend —

The first verse is set to a melody of eighth and quarter notes. The piano accompaniment features block chords in the right hand and a simple bass line in the left hand.

There have been songs of home sweet home, You can't for - get where - e'er you roam,
And when the world goes back on you, It's hard to find a friend that's true,

The second verse continues the melody and piano accompaniment from the first verse.

But why not sing of some - one To whom some praise is due. —
But just re - mem - ber Dad - dy He'll stick un - til the end. —

The third verse concludes the main body of the song with the same musical structure.

Chorus

Dad - dies we owe a lot to you — Dad - dies,

The chorus is marked with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic. The piano accompaniment is more active, with the right hand playing chords and the left hand playing a rhythmic bass line.
