Music by JAMES V. MONACO

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand plays a series of chords and eighth notes in a 2/4 time signature, while the left hand provides a steady bass line with eighth notes.

VOICE

A - mer - i - ca, I must say I love you, — You've been more than a moth - er to me, —
A - mer - i - ca, you're such a young na - tion, — You are just like a big boun - cing boy —

— And al - though I must stray I must go a - way Still my home you will al - ways be, — — You've been hap - py and gay, I loved you that way Your free - dom the world could en - joy —

— So good - bye, I am leav - ing you soon, — I must sail with the last day of June —
— I am sor - ry to leave you be - hind — I'll come back here when you've changed your mind —

I'm goin' to set-tle down, — out-side of Lon-don Town, — Down in a vil - lage by the sea, — And you will find me there — And the coun-try air — Where ev - 'ry - thing is free — Al-though I'm ov-er there, — My heart will still be here — And I hate to say "Good - bye" — But I'm a man who must have a lit-tle li- quor when I'm dry dry dry — I'm goin' to dry

REFRAIN

I found the end of the Rain - bow, When you first smiled on me,

All my hap - pi - ness - came with your car - ess And the world was fair to see, be - lieve me,
