(She Has Some Wonderful Ways)

Words and Music by
Ed. G. NELSON and BUD COOPER

Moderato

Piano

The piano introduction consists of two systems of music. The first system has a treble clef with a key signature of one flat and a common time signature. It begins with a piano (p) dynamic and a Moderato tempo. The melody is simple and rhythmic, with a bass line providing harmonic support. The second system continues the melody and bass line, ending with a repeat sign.

I met the girl-ies of the East and West I nev-er found them diff-erent from the rest, She's just the kind you read a-bout in books You've got to hand it to my Gal for looks,

Their haugh-ty glance-s some-times en-trance-es, But nev-er did ap-peal to me, — For Some pret-ty la-dy some pret-ty ba-by, I nev-er thought she'd fall for me, — But I've got a Gal all a-lone — And she's got a way — all her own. Oh!

no one can steal her a-way — And that's why I al-ways will say: — Oh!

Chorus

My Gal — she has some won-der-ful ways

My Gal ——— is just as nice as can be ——— She's got that come and get me smile And a mil-lion dol-lar style She won my heart and now she's some sweet ma-ma to me — So cute and pret-ty My Gal ——— Oh she's got ev - 'ry - thing and then some more, She's the kind of Gal that I've been, Yes look-in' for. ——— And when she does ——— a lit-tle this ——— And when she does ——— a lit-tle that Oh, you'll ad - mit ——— I've got a won-der-ful Gal ——— Oh

THESE touching ballads go right to people's hearts. They bring a catch to the throat—a smile to the lips. Folks love to sing them.

These are the songs you read about in The Saturday Evening Post and daily newspapers.
