It seems to me that now-a-days no mat-ter where you go You'll I've tra-veled all a-round this world but nev-er have I found A hear them sing of Ire-land sure and how they love it so, Why ev-en to the for-eign-ers they bet-ter class of peo-ple for good na-ture and re-nown, They tell me that it won't be long till sing it in their way, I think that ev-'ry-bo-dy's turn-ing I-rish now-a-days.

we see Ire-land free, And you can bet they'll name it sure, the "Land of Li-ber-ty."

Chorus.

There's a lit-tle bit of I-rish ev-'ry-where, ——— Ev-'ry-bo-dy loves to hear the I-rish

p-f airs, ——— Ev-'ry na-tion-al-i-ty would love to see old Ire-land free, And — see them have a lead-er of their own ——— Sure I don't see why they don't let them a-lone, ——— All they ask is the free-dom of their homes, ——— Sure in Chi-na I de-clare you can find them o-ver there, There's a lit-tle bit of I-rish ev-'ry-where. ——— There's a where. ———
